

Agencies who have certified that they meet the use of force standards as presented in the DOJ guidance

Agency ORI Agency EIN Agency DUNS Agency Name City State Zip

Originating Record Identifier (ORI):
This number is assigned by the FBI for crime reporting purposes.

Employee Identification Number (EIN):
This number is assigned by the IRS for tax reporting purposes. The EIN can be found on a W2 or payroll statement.

Data Universal Number System (DUNS):
A DUNS number is a unique nine or thirteen digit sequence recognized as the universal standard for identifying and keeping track of entities receiving federal funds.

Privacy Act Section (e)(3) Statement

Section (e)(3) of the Privacy Act of 1974, codified at 5 U.S.C. 552a, requires that the COPS Office inform users of its authority to collect personal information, how the information will be used, and the effects of not providing the requested information.

Authority: The Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, and E.O. 13929 Safe Policing for Safe Communities.

Purpose: To collect names of law enforcement executives for agencies that have been certified by an independent credible source as complying with two mandatory safe policing principles in the U.S. Department of Justice Standards of Certification. This information will also be used to track the number of law enforcement agencies that have been certified in the United States by January 1, 2021.

Routine Use: This information will be shared with other Department of Justice components to determine an agency's eligibility for 2021 discretionary grant funding. This information may also be shared in accordance with the routine uses described in the System of Records Notice (SORN) entitled COPS Management System: NexGen (CMS:NxG), Justice/COPS-003, 85 FR 34212, located at <https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records#DOJ>.

Disclosures: Disclosure of names of law enforcement executives to the Department of Justice is voluntary. If the information is provided, law enforcement agencies applying for Department of Justice discretionary grant funding will be able to check if they are certified in the Justice Grants System (JustGrants) and upload a copy of their certification.

certified in the Justice Grants System (JustGrants) and upload a copy of their certification.

nce document.

Title of Chief Executive	Chief Executive Name	Date Certification Issued
--------------------------	----------------------	---------------------------

at

COPS Office inform users of its authority to request the requested information.

Against Women and Department of Justice certified by an independent credentialing body Justice Standards of Certification. The information certified in the United States by January 31, 2021.

onents to determine an agency’s eligibility for FY with the routine uses described in the COPS Office (NxG), Justice/COPS-003, 85 FR 3421. This SORN is of Justice is voluntary. If the information is not grant funding will be able to check they are tion.

