If you are a disaster survivor, you may qualify for federal assistance.

The registration process will take 18-20 minutes. The process is authorized by the Office of Management and Budget under Control number 1660-0002 with an expiration of February 28, 2021.

- If you are applying for both home and business disaster assistance, complete one registration to cover both.
- If you are applying for multiple disasters, you will need to complete a registration for each disaster.

You'll need the following to complete your registration:

- Social Security Number (SSN), or, the SSN of a minor child in the household who is a U.S. Citizen, Non-Citizen National or Qualified Alien.
- Annual Household Income
- Contact Information (phone number, mailing address, email address*, and damaged home address)
- Insurance Information (coverage, insurance company name, etc.)
- Bank Account Information (if you are eligible to receive financial assistance, the money can be deposited in your account)

Note: You must provide an email address if you want to review your registration status online. If you do not provide an email address, you will be required to contact FEMA for any updates to your registration.

If you need further information or assistance:

Call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-FEMA (1-800-621-3362). This number is also for users of 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS). TTY users can call 1-800-462-7585. Helpline services are available seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. ET.

If you are having technical issues, call FEMA's Internet Help Desk at 1-800-745-0243. They are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

To learn more, review the Individuals and Households Program Unified Guidance. This provides policy and eligibility information for all assistance under the Individuals and Households Program (IHP). Visit the Individual Disaster Assistance page for more details. Registration Instructions

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the registration instructions for the Disaster Assistance Center. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://staging.disasterassistance.gov/DAC/ri/newReg.do>. The page header includes the logo for DisasterAssistance.gov and the text "ACCESS TO DISASTER HELP AND RESOURCES". A navigation bar at the top contains "Disaster Assistance" and "Contact Us".

The main content area is titled "Registration Instructions" and features an "Application Progress" indicator with a series of dots. Below this, the text states: "The application process will take approximately 18 - 20 minutes. An asterisk (*) identifies required fields which you must answer to complete the registration." It also includes a "Paperwork Burden Disclosure Notice (FEMA Form 009-0-1)" and a note: "NOTE: Do not send your completed form to this address."

The instructions are followed by a list of steps:

- For help on any field click the Help for this page. This will provide helpful information about how to answer each question as you progress through the application.
- Read the information carefully and answer the questions on the screen. When you have read the information and answered all of the required questions, click the "Next" button at the bottom of the page to continue the registration process.
- As you progress through the registration process, the tabs at the top of the screen change. You can review any of the information you previously submitted by selecting the appropriate tab.
- You can cancel your application at any time by clicking "Exit Registration".

At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "Exit Registration" and "Next". A note at the bottom of the page reads: "Note: It is important to know that your registration becomes a legal document. FEMA may use external sources to verify the accuracy of the information you enter. If you intentionally make false statements or hide information to try to get assistance, it's a violation of federal and state laws. This can carry severe criminal and civil penalties. Penalties may include a fine of up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (16 U.S.C § 287, 1001, and 3571)."

Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Disaster Assistance Center website. The page title is "Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility". Privacy Act Statement and Declaration of Eligibility

OMB No. 1660-0002, Exp. 02-26-2018

FEMA is required by law to provide you with a copy of the Privacy Act Statement.

Citizenship: In order to be eligible to receive FEMA Disaster Assistance, a member of the household must be a citizen, non-citizen national or qualified alien of the United States. Please feel free to consult with an attorney or other immigration expert if you have any questions. By checking the box you hereby declare, under penalty of perjury that you are a citizen or non-citizen national of the United States or a qualified alien of the United States.

AUTHORITY: The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 5121-5207 and Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1978; 4 U.S.C. §§ 2904 and 2906; 4 C.F.R. § 206.2(a)(27); the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-193) and Executive Order 13411. DHS asks for your SSN pursuant to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3325(d) and § 7701(c)(1).

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): This information is being collected for the primary purpose of determining eligibility and administering financial assistance under a Presidentially-declared disaster. Additionally, information may be reviewed within FEMA for quality assurance purposes and used to assess FEMA's customer service to disaster assistance applicants.

ROUTINE USE(S): The information on this form may be shared outside of FEMA as generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This includes sharing this information with State, tribe, local, and voluntary organizations to enable you to receive additional disaster assistance and as necessary and authorized by other routine uses published in DHS/FEMA-008 Disaster Recovery Assistance Files System of Records, 78 Fed. Reg. 25,282 (April 30, 2013), and upon written request, by agreement, or as required by law.

DISCLOSURE: The disclosure of information on this form is voluntary; however, failure to provide the information requested may delay or prevent the individual from receiving disaster assistance."

I hereby declare, under penalty of perjury that:

- I am a citizen or non-citizen national of the United States

The following pages will ask for:

- Your damaged home or damaged business address.
- How to contact you (phone number and mailing address).
- A Social Security Number (SSN).
 - In order to be eligible to receive FEMA Disaster Assistance, a member of the household must be a citizen, non-citizen national or qualified alien of the United States. By completing the registration, you agree to the information found on the Declaration and Release Form.

Note: We cannot provide money to people or households for losses already covered by insurance. If you have not already contacted your insurance company to file a claim, please do this as soon as possible. Failure to file a claim with your insurance company may affect you getting grant assistance.

If you are registering for:

- Vehicle ONLY, enter the zip code where the vehicle damage occurred (even if it is different than your home zip code). Only enter the name of the street where the damage occurred (not a house, apartment, or other street number).
- Business Assistance ONLY, use the name and SSN of the business owner or representative.
- Funeral Assistance ONLY, use the name and SSN of the person responsible for the deceased person's funeral costs.
- Child Care ONLY, enter the location address that was damaged by the disaster which:
 - caused new or additional child care costs.
 - resulted in a loss of income for the household (e.g. child care facility, place of employment).

Now, we want to know about your lodging, food, and medical needs. We'll also need to know about damage to your vehicle(s) and personal property.

Please have your insurance information available (home, flood, car, etc.) to add to your application. If you don't have your policy numbers right now, that is OK. You can give us that information later.

NOTE: Reimbursement for spoiled food is not covered by FEMA's Individual and Households Program (IHP). Contact your insurance company to ask about your coverage.

NOTE: We cannot provide money to individuals or households for losses already covered by insurance. If you have not already contacted your insurance agent to file a claim, please do this as soon as possible. Failure to file a claim with your insurance company may affect you getting grant assistance.

How would you like to receive your correspondence from FEMA?

* In which language would you like to receive correspondence?

* Do you prefer to receive traditional postal mail or electronic notification? Postal Mail E-Mail

By choosing electronic correspondence (email), you will:

- Receive an email alert telling you an update has been made to your registration.
- Need to create an online account to view the updates and information from FEMA. There is more information about creating an account later in the registration process.
- Not receive any correspondence from FEMA through the U.S. Postal Service (USPS).

If you haven't already done so, provide your email address:

* Email Address:

* Verify E-Mail Address:

If you need to change the email address you entered at the beginning of the registration, click the Identification link at the top of this screen.

If you do not receive an email from FEMA within the next 7 days, or to change your correspondence preference, please call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362.

- * Yes, proceed with Electronic correspondence.
 No, change preference to Postal Mail.

You are about to submit your FEMA registration. Please carefully review the information below. Click Edit to make changes or click Submit to submit your registration to FEMA. You will only be able to make limited changes after you submit your registration.

By clicking Submit below I certify that:

- * Only one application has been submitted for my household.
- * All information I have provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- * I will return any disaster aid money I received from FEMA or the State if I receive insurance or other money for the same loss, or if I do not use FEMA disaster aid money for the purpose for which it was intended.

I understand that, if I intentionally make false statements or conceal any information in an attempt to obtain disaster aid, it is a violation of federal and State laws, which carry severe criminal and civil penalties, including a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 287, 1001, and 3571).

I understand that the information provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance may be subject to sharing within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) including, but not limited to, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

I authorize FEMA to verify all information given by me about my property/place of residence, income, employment and dependents in order to determine my eligibility for disaster assistance; and

I authorize all custodians of records of my insurance, employer, any public or private entity, bank financial or credit data service to release information to FEMA and/or the State upon request.
