Dear Name:

Thank you for your interest in the Study to Explore Early Development (SEED). This packet has information to prepare you for the clinic visit and forms to fill out. The package has two folders that will guide you through the study. Someone from the study will call you to make sure you received the packet, help you complete materials if needed, and answer your questions. The folders contained in this packet are:

Yellow Folder: Things You Should Keep <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Incentive ◆ Clinic Visit Prep Guide ◆ Biological Sampling FAQ ◆ Picture Story for your child about the clinic visit 	Green Folder: Forms to Fill Out and Return <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ 6 <Optional: 7> forms to fill out about family history and child development
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Please read over all of the materials in all folders.

If you feel that you can complete the materials in the green folder on your own, go ahead and fill them out. Please follow the instructions given and send the materials back to us. If you have any questions about completing these forms (or want help before you begin), please call <staff> at <number>. They can help you over the phone or set up a meeting with study staff.

There is a $45 <money order/cash card/Visa card> enclosed to thank you for participating in the maternal interview. We thank you for your willingness to participate in this important research study. If you would like to speak to anyone at any point during the study, please call us at the number above. You may also call me directly at <phone number>.
