TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION:

NIH Office of Intramural Training & Education (OITE) – Graduate & Professional School Fair Feedback

PURPOSE:

The OITE provides several services to the NIH trainees (summer interns, postbaccalaureates, graduate students, postdoctorates, clinical fellows, and research fellows) and NIH staff (staff scientists and staff clinicians) by providing services that cover major topics such as: communication, career development, leadership, mentoring and other personal development.

The Graduate & Professional School Fair is designed to provide participants of the NIH Summer Internship Program (SIP) and the NIH Postbaccalaureate Training Program (PBT), as well as college students in the DC area, the opportunity to learn more about career exploration and taking the next step in an advanced degree programs leading to a PhD, MD, DDS, MD/PhD, and other graduate and professional degrees. More than 150 outstanding colleges and universities from across the United States send representatives to discuss their graduate, medical, and dental schools, schools of public health, and other biomedically relevant programs. This day also includes workshops on getting to graduate and professional school, MD/PhD programs, interviewing, and careers in public health, psychology, and dentistry.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

The NIH/OITE requests feedback from NIH trainees and college students from the general public participating in the Graduate & Professional School Fair.

NIH trainees form the Summer Internship Program (SIP) and Postbaccalaureate Training Program (PBT) programs receive financial support for a stipend and health insurance. College students from the general public do not receive financial support from the NIH.
