

NIAAA Website Refresh

User Testing: First-Click Test

Tasks

Q: A doctor explained that your spouse has alcohol use disorder. You are seeking help but aren't sure what to do.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Facts About Alcohol

Q: You suspect your spouse has a drinking problem but aren't really sure. You'd like to get more information to know for sure whether this is something to worry about.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Facts About Alcohol

Q: You are concerned about the health of a loved one who is pregnant. You'd like to read up on why it is risky to drink alcohol during pregnancy.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Alcohol Effects

Q: You'd like to find statistics on alcohol use and alcohol-related deaths in the U.S. Where might you find that information?

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Facts About Alcohol

Q: After hearing more about your friend's experiences with drinking, you are interested in learning about the dangers of blackouts.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Alcohol Effects

Q: As a parent, you're looking for conversation starters for talking with your high school children about alcohol.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Special Populations

Q: As a college administrator preparing for the new school year, you are working to create a policy for dormitories on students and drinking and want to get some background information on the extent of drinking on campus and consequences of student drinking.

A: Alcohol's Effects on Health > Special Populations