

Request for Fee Waiver
Department of Homeland Security
 U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-912
 OMB No. 1615-0116
 Expires 03/31/2020

What Is the Purpose of Form I-912?

Form I-912 is used to request a fee waiver for eligible immigration forms and services by certain eligible categories of applicants and petitioners. In general, you may request a fee waiver if you are applying or currently approved for one of the eligible categories, and your documented annual household income is at or below 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG).

If you are applying based on being impacted by an emergent circumstance or major natural disaster declaration posted to www.uscis.gov providing relief from USCIS filing fees you may request a fee waiver if you have documented annual household income is at or below 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG), and you are not seeking an immigration benefit for which you are subject to the public charge ground of inadmissibility, the affidavit of support requirement under INA 212(a)(4)(C) or (D), or you are not already a sponsored immigrant as defined by 8 CFR 213a.1.

For filing tips and additional information, see www.uscis.gov/i-912.

To request a fee waiver, you must submit Form I-912 and provide the required supporting documentation. A letter stating you are unable to pay the filing fees or biometric services fees will not be accepted without a fully completed and properly executed Form I-912 and supporting documentation.

You do not need to file Form I-912 for applications and petitions that do not require a filing fee. Some USCIS applications and petitions have fee exemption requirements for certain types of applicants and petitioners. In these cases, the USCIS form and instructions will outline the fee exemption and submission requirements if a separate Form I-912 is not required.

NOTE: You may be ineligible for certain immigration benefits if you are found inadmissible as a public charge. While adjudication of the fee waiver request does not consider the requestor's inadmissibility, filing to request a fee waiver and receiving an approved fee waiver can negatively impact eligibility for any immigration benefit that is subject to the public charge determination.

How to File Form I-912

You must file this fee waiver request with all applications and petitions for which you are requesting a fee waiver. If you are filing joint forms that have fees (for example, I-485 and I-765), you only need to file one I-912. You do not have to file a separate Form I-912 for the filing fee and the biometric services fee (if applicable). If USCIS approves your Form I-912, we will waive both the filing fee and biometric services fee. Each person requesting a fee waiver must submit an individual Form I-912.

Special Immigrant Juveniles (SIJ)

If you are filing based on SIJ classification, and you have been placed in out-of-home care under the supervision of a juvenile court or a state child welfare agency at the time of filing, you do not need to complete Part 3, or provide evidence of income. Item Number 3. Indicate whether your spouse is living with you. If your spouse lives with you, list your spouse in the table provided in Item Number 4, and provide your spouse's gross income in Item Number 7. Indicate whether or not your spouse provides any financial support to your household. If your spouse provides any financial support to your household, include any contributions that your spouse provides to your household in Item Number 8.

If you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on a pending or approved petition or application for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status, you may skip this question.

Your Household Size

Item Number 4. Indicate whether you are providing the primary financial support for your household.

Complete the table with the information requested about the members of your household, including their names, dates of birth, relationship to you, whether the person is married, whether the person is a full-time student, and whether the person earns income counted towards household income.

For the last column (Is any income earned by this person counted towards the household income?), select yes if income is received consistently or regularly as wages or salary from these household members' employment or business.

VAWA, T and U

If you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on a pending or approved petition or application for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status and your head of household, the person upon whose Federal income tax return you are listed as a dependent, or one of your household members is or was your abuser, human trafficker, or perpetrator, or is or was a member of your abuser, human trafficker, or perpetrator's household, then do not list him or her in Item Number 4, or his or her income in Item Numbers 5 - 9, below.

At the end of the table, provide the total number of household members. Include the following people, who are dependent on your income, your spouse's income, or the head of household's income, as part of your household size:

1. You;
2. The head of your household (if not you). If the child is applying individually, provide the information of the primary custodial parent;
 - A. You are the head of household if you filed the most recent Federal income tax return for your household (includes filing as head of household) or earned the majority of the income for your household.

- B. If you are not the head of household, the head of household is the person who filed the most recent Federal income tax return on which you are listed as a dependent or the person who provides the majority of your household's income.
- 3. Your spouse, if living with you (if you are separated or your spouse is not living with you, do not include your spouse); or
- 4. Any family members living in your household who are dependent on your income, your spouse's income, or the head of household's income, including:
- A. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried and under 21 years of age, and who live with you;
 - B. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried, are over 21 years of age but under 24 years of age, are full-time students, and who live with you when not at school;
 - C. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried and for whom you are the legal guardian because they are physically or developmentally disabled or mentally impaired to the extent that they cannot adequately care for themselves and cannot establish, maintain, or re-establish their own household;
 - D. Your parents who live with you; and
 - E. Any other dependents listed on your Federal income tax return or your spouse or head of household's Federal income tax returns.

Your Annual Gross Household Income

Item Number 5. Federal Income Tax Return Filing. Identify whether you and your household member(s) listed in Item Number 4. filed a Federal income tax return last year.

If you and/or your household members have filed the current year's Federal income tax return, submit a transcript of your and your household members' current year's Federal income tax return from the IRS.

If you are filing Form I-912 between January 1 and April 15 of any year, and you and/or your household members have not yet filed the current year's Federal income tax return, submit IRS transcripts for the most recent tax year. Submit any tax transcripts that you or your household members filed with any foreign government if you or your household members were residing outside of the United States during any time within the last tax year and you were not required to file a federal individual income tax return with the United States government.

If you are a child (under the age of 21 and unmarried) and are listed as a dependent on your parents' Federal income tax return, or if you are listed as a dependent on anyone else's Federal income tax return, list the total income from that individual's most recent Federal income tax return within the last tax year and submit that individual's IRS tax transcripts.

Item Number 6. Your Annual Gross Income. Provide information on your annual gross income. Gross income includes your wages, dividends, capital gains, business income, retirement distributions as well as other income without any adjustments. From your filed Federal income tax return, enter the gross income listed on Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. If you have not filed a Federal income tax return but you have an IRS Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, that covers the previous 12-month period, take your total wages, tips, and other compensation reported in Box 1, and enter that amount as your household's annual wage income.

Documentation. For information on obtaining federal income tax transcripts without a fee, see www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript. You may also use IRS Form 4506-T to request income tax transcripts, or Form 1099 Certain Government Payments from the IRS. If you reside and filed tax returns in a U.S. territory, submit the tax return transcript from the territory instead of a federal income tax return transcript.

To document your annual gross income, provide the following information:

- 1. A transcript of your most recent Federal income tax return from the IRS. You are not required to have the IRS certify the transcript or photocopy, but USCIS may later request a certified copy;
- 2. If you filed a Federal income tax return, and you have recently changed employment or had a change in salary, submit your Federal income tax return transcript and copies of consecutive pay statements;

3. If you did not file a Federal income tax return, submit a recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099 (if Social Security is the only income received), or the most recent Social Security Statement indicating your earning record;
 4. If you are a student and not living with your parents or are not claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal income tax return, do not include your parents' incomes. You should only provide proof of your income or documentation that shows you are not required to file a Federal or state tax return transcript, such as proof that you are a full-time student;
 5. If you do not have any income, describe your particular situation in detail in Part 3. Item Number 10., and submit documentation from the IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T).
 6. If you are homeless, submit documentation from the IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T). If you are homeless and receiving support services, submit an affidavit from a religious institution, non-profit, or community-based organization verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from that entity and attesting to your financial situation.

Item Number 7. Annual Gross Income of All Family Members. Provide the annual gross income from all family members counted as part of your household.

1. If a person lives with you but does not contribute financial support to your household, then you should not include this person's income when calculating your household gross income.
2. If you are married but separated and/or do not live with your spouse, do not include your spouse's income. However, you must include any financial support your spouse provides to your household in Item Number 8.
3. If you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on a pending or approved petition or application for VAWA or T or U nonimmigrant status, do not provide your spouse's income.
4. Include your parents' gross income if you are a full-time student, 21 to 23 years old, are unmarried, and are living with your parents, or if you are claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal income tax return. You must provide a transcript of both parents' Federal income tax return transcripts and your own Federal income tax return transcript, or provide proof of gross income as supporting documentation.

Documentation. For information on obtaining federal income tax transcripts without a fee, see www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript. You may also use IRS Form 4506-T to request income tax transcripts, a copy of Form W-2, or Form 1099 Certain Government Payments from the IRS.

To document your household members' gross incomes, provide the following:

1. A transcript of each household member's most recent Federal income tax return;
2. If the household member filed a Federal income tax return and has recently changed employment or had a change in salary, submit his or her Federal income tax return transcript and copies of consecutive pay statements (stubs) for at least the past month. Pay statements (stubs) alone are not sufficient evidence.

If a household member is unemployed and receiving unemployment compensation also submit a copy of his or her IRS Form 1099-G, and income tax transcripts or submit documentation from the IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T). If he or she is not receiving unemployment compensation, submit a letter of termination from the employer.

3. If the household member did not file a Federal tax return, submit a recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099 (if Social Security is the only income received), or the most recent Social Security Statement indicating his or her earning record.
4. If any of the household members do not have any income, describe his or her particular situation in Part 3., Item Number 10., and submit documentation from IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T).

Item Number 8. Total Additional Income or Financial Support. If you received additional income on a continuing basis (e.g., monthly or annually) for the most recent full year (for example, child support) and it was NOT listed in your tax return, provide the amount of additional annual income. Type or print “0” if you have no additional income. You must include any consistent or regular financial support or additional income contributed to your household by any person living with you or not living with you, even if it is not part of the household for tax purposes.

Select any type of additional income you are receiving, including any amount of money that you receive that is not included in Item Number 6. or 7.

Documentation. You must document additional financial assistance as income. For example, include the following information:

1. Documents showing parental support; alimony; child support; educational stipend; pension; Social Security; royalties, veterans benefit; unemployment benefits; and consistent or regular financial support from an adult child(ren), parent, dependent, or other person living in your household.
2. A court order of any child support, or spousal support or documentation that indicates the actual amount of child support or spousal support being received.
3. Bank statements or IRS Form W-2, Form SSA-1099 for any pension social security or veteran’s benefit.
4. If you are receiving unemployment benefits, provide IRS Form 1099-MISC, in addition to your IRS Form 1040 transcript.
5. Bank statements or other documentation establishing any additional income provided by an adult child(ren), dependent, or other person living in the household.

Item Number 9. Total Annual Household Gross Income. Provide the total household gross income. Add the amounts from Item Numbers 6., 7., and 8. USCIS will compare this amount to the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

Item Number 10. Indicate whether any information (including marital status, income, and list of dependents) in your Federal income tax returns is different from what you indicate in Form I-912. Provide the reasons for any changes in circumstances and any differences between the tax returns and information in your Form I-912. If you need to explain anything else about your circumstances that affect the income determination, or lack of income, use the space provided below. If you need extra space, use the space provided in Part 7. Additional Information.

Item Number 11. If you already have or are applying for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status, and you do not have any income or cannot provide proof of income for yourself or your household members as required in Part 3. Item Numbers 5. - 9. above, describe your situation in sufficient detail in Part 3. Item Number 11. to substantiate that your income is at or below 125 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and that you are unable to obtain the required documentation. For example, if you cannot access information required to obtain tax transcripts because your abuser controls access to your documents, then explain the situation below. Additionally, provide any available documentation of your and/or your household’s income, such as pay stubs or affidavits from religious institutions, non-profits, or other community-based organizations verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from that entity and attesting to your financial situation.
