

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

Medical Complete

Congratulations Christian, you've successfully completed the medical phase of your hiring journey for the Border Patrol Agent position!

As you continue to complete your hiring steps, it's very important you stay in shape in order to meet the rigorous demands of training and the physical requirements of the Border Patrol Agent position. If you're not sure what you can do to physically prepare for the position – don't worry! CBP created a Physical Fitness Readiness Program designed to help you get ready for the physical demands of the position. Click here to try it out!

Along with staying in shape, it's also important for you to stay healthy. If you experience any of the following changes to your medical status, please notify us by email at CBPHiringMedReview@cbp.dhs.gov. We need to know about changes such as new...

- Medical Treatments (excluding visits for minor illnesses such as colds and flu)
- Mental Health Treatments
- Medical Diagnoses
- Injuries or Medical Procedures
- Prescription Medications (excluding short-term prescriptions such as antibiotics)

If you have not had any changes to your medical status, no response is required.

Border Patrol Agents are focused 24/7 on securing our international land borders and coastal waters between ports of entry. They safeguard the American people from terrorists and their weapons, drug smugglers, and illegal entry of undocumented aliens. They truly exemplify U.S. Customs and Border Protection's core values of integrity, vigilance, and service to country. Check out CBP.gov/careers/bpa to learn more about what you will be doing as a Border Patrol Agent!

One more thing! If you haven't done so already, we strongly encourage you to download the CBP Jobs app to stay up-to-date on your application status. You can find more information regarding the CBP Jobs app by clicking Download the CBP Jobs App!

Download the CBP Jobs App

Your opinion matters! Kindly fill out the anonymous short survey so that we may continue to improve our services.