Electronic Consumer Complaint Reporting Form (eCCF) See Privacy Policy

Check Complaint Status

Welcome to the FSIS Electronic Consumer Complaint Reporting Form. Here you can report foodborne incidents such as illness, foreign object, injury, allergic reaction, misbranding, and off taste, color, or appearance involving meat, poultry, and other processed egg products regulated by the USDA FSIS. The information you are able to provide in this form will help to support FSIS analysis in their ability to identify and respond to consumer food safety issues.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 0583-0133. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

Disclaimer and Notices:

- If you are a minor (under 18 years of age) please seek the advice of an adult before submitting a complaint.

If you have a problem with a food product...

Separate government agencies are responsible for protecting different segments of the food supply and responding to consumer complaints involving those food products. If you have experienced a problem with a food product, it is important to contact the appropriate public health organization.

For Help With Restaurant Food Problems:

Contact the Health Department in your city, county or state. View a complete listing of State Departments of Public Health.

For Help With Non-Meat Food Products (i.e. Cereals, Produce, Pastas, Cheeses, Whole Eggs in Shell, etc.):

For complaints about food products which do not contain meat, poultry or egg products, such as fruit and vegetables, contact the Food and Drug Administration \(FDA\).

Documents

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the USDA Electronic Consumer Complaint Reporting Form. The browser's address bar shows the URL: localhost:23771/Ecd/Form#case-data/ComplaintDescription. The page header includes the USDA logo and the text "United States Department of Agriculture Food Safety and Inspection Service". The main heading is "Electronic Consumer Complaint Reporting Form". Below the heading, there is a "Submit" button and a navigation bar with tabs: "Complaint Description", "Contact Information", "Product Information", and "Upload Documents". The "Upload Documents" tab is active. A table with the following columns is visible: "Document Title", "Comment", and "Actions". One document is listed: "Tooth_in_chicken_nugget.jpg" with the comment "Image". A blue "Add Document" button is located above the table. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with links: "USDA.gov", "Accessibility Statement", "FSIS Home", "Privacy Policy", "USA.gov", "White House", and "Site Map".

Upload Documents

The screenshot shows the same USDA Electronic Consumer Complaint Reporting Form, but with an "Upload New Documents" dialog box open. The dialog box contains the following text: "Upload New Documents", "Please upload pictures of the product that demonstrate the issue you are reporting to include all numbers, dates and codes printed on the package. If this complaint involves a foreign object, please also include pictures of the foreign object next to a coin or ruler", "Files must be less than 40MB", and "Allowed file types: .jpg, .docx, .pdf". Below the text are three buttons: "Add Files...", "Start upload", and "Cancel upload". At the bottom of the dialog, there are two input fields: "Document Title:" and "Document Comment:". The "Document Title" field contains the text "Tooth_in_Chicken_Nugget 3.2 MB". There are "Start" and "Cancel" buttons next to the input fields, and a "Close" button at the bottom right of the dialog. The background of the form is dimmed.
