

Subject: 2021 QuickCompass of Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Personnel (ANNOUNCE)

Dear [NAME]:

The DoD's Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office (SAPRO) asks that you take a few minutes to participate in a survey asking for your perspectives on how well the [Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR)/Sexual Harassment/Assault Response & Prevention (SHARP)] program is serving members at your military location. Your opinions on the 2021 QuickCompass of Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Personnel (QSAR) are very important to the success of the DoD's efforts to provide the best care possible to victims of sexual assault. The survey is voluntary and confidential, but I encourage your response to ensure the results we obtain are truly representative.

The 2021 QSAR is being conducted by the Office of People Analytics (OPA) and is now available. To have your voice heard, please go to %SURVEYLINK%. If prompted, your ticket number is [TICKET NUMBER]

This survey is considered official business and can be completed using your government computer or your own computer if you choose. Although your participation is voluntary, I hope you will recognize its importance and find a few minutes to answer these questions about your experiences in victim care.

Thank you for participating in the 2021 QuickCompass of Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Personnel.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth H. Davis, M.A.
Acting Director, Health & Resilience Division
DoD Office of People Analytics (OPA)
