The Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) have specific regulations and policies that an individual must comply with so they can be granted access to ATF information, information technology (IT) systems, and/or unescorted access to ATF facilities. To ensure compliance with these regulations and policies, you must respond to the questions below and sign and date this questionnaire in the certification section. If you do not wish to respond to these questions, please sign and date in the declination section below.  1. Residency Requirement: The DOJ requires that during three of the last five years you have resided in the United States, worked for the United States in a foreign country in a Federal, military, or federally-sponsored capacity, and/or been a dependent of a Federal or U.S. military employee in a foreign country. You may be asked to provide sufficient documentation to meet this residency requirement. Mark an "X" in the box that describes your residency over the past five years.  I resided in the United States for three of the last five years.  I worked for the United States in a foreign country in a Federal, military, or federally-sponsored capacity for three of the last five years.  I have been a dependent (includes spouse) of a Federal or U.S. military employee in a foreign country for three of the last five years.  For three of the last five years, I have met the residency requirement through a combination of the above three criteria.
I do not meet any of the above requirements.
2. Citizenship Requirement: The DOJ requires that individuals requesting access to ATF information and/or unescorted access to ATF facilities must be a United States citizen or foreign national legally permitted to reside in the United States. If you are a foreign national, your country of citizenship must be included in the Department of State's U.S. Collective Defense Arrangements. A current list of these countries can be found on the following website: http://www.State.gov/s/l/treaty/collectivedefense/index.htm.
