A separate Form I-864A must be used for each household member whose income and/or assets are being used by a sponsor to qualify. Each Form I-864A is completed and signed by two individuals: a sponsor who is completing Form I-864 and a household member who is promising to make his or her income and/or assets available to the sponsor to help support the sponsored immigrants. The combined signing of this contract constitutes an agreement that the household member is responsible along with the sponsor for the support of the individuals named in this contract. This contract must be submitted with Form I-864. Form I-864A may only be used when a sponsor’s income and assets do not meet the income requirements of Form I-864 and	[Page 1] What Is the Purpose of Form I-864A? Form I-864A, Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member, is an attachment to Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the INA. A separate Form I-864A must be executed by the sponsor’s spouse whose income and/or assets are being used by a sponsor to meet the income requirements of section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), if the spouse is not the intending immigrant. Each Form I-864A is executed by two individuals: the sponsor who is executing Form I-864 and a household member (the sponsor’s spouse or the intending immigrant in certain circumstances) who is promising to make his or her income and/or assets available to the sponsor to help support the sponsored immigrants. The combined execution of this contract constitutes an agreement that the household member is responsible along with the sponsor for the support of the individuals named in this contract. This contract must be submitted with Form I-864. Form I-864A may only be used when a sponsor’s income and assets do not meet the income requirements of section 213A of
