Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 205(c)(2)(A) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from verifying wage allegations made by wage earners.

We will use the information to resolve discrepancies in an individual's Social Security earnings record, and to process claims for Social Security benefits. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To employers or former employers, including State Social Security administrators, for correcting and reconstructing State employee earnings records and for Social Security purposes; and
- To the Department of State for administering the Social Security Act in foreign countries through services and facilities of that agency.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0059, entitled Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1819.
