INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ADMINISTRATIVE SUBPOENA

PURPOSE OF THE FORM:

Purpose of this form: The Administrative Subpoena is the federal form that the state IV-D programs, pursuant to section 454(9)(E) of the Social Security Act, are required to use in interstate cases. A state may elect to use this form in intrastate cases. This form is to be administratively issued by the IV-D program to subpoena financial or other information needed to establish, modify, or enforce a child support order.

Italicized text that appears within a “box” refers to policy or provides additional information.

HEADING/CAPTION:

- The initiating jurisdiction determines the heading.
- In the “To” field place the name and address of the individual or entity on whom you are serving the subpoena. (For example - financial institutions or employer.)
- In the “Regarding” field provide the name, alias name(s), date of birth, and SSN (if available) of the individual you are requesting information about.

Frequently, this will be the noncustodial parent. If you are issuing an administrative subpoena to obtain bulk records for data matching purposes, you may use the “Regarding” field as a subject line.

- In the “From” field place the Child Support Enforcement Agency name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, and fax number.

Section I. Case Identifier:

- In the space following “IV-D Case Number” enter the number/identifier identical to the one submitted on the Federal Case Registry, which is a left-justified, 15-character, alphanumeric field, allowing all characters except asterisk and backslash, and with all characters in uppercase.
- In the space following “Docket Case Number” you may enter the court’s docket number, cause number, or any other appropriate reference number that is assigned to the case, which is a left-justified, 15-character, alphanumeric field, allowing all characters except asterisk and backslash, and with all characters in uppercase.

If you are issuing an administrative subpoena to obtain bulk records for data matching purposes, this field is optional.

Section II. Subpoena:

- In the “date” field provide the date that the requested documents are to be provided to you.
- In the space provided, clearly, completely, and specifically describe all records or documents that you are requesting in the subpoena. If you are issuing an administrative subpoena to obtain bulk records for data matching purposes, you may issue one form accompanied by a list of the individuals whose information you are requesting.

Barcode:

- If available, entities using imaging technology can use this area for adding a barcode to the document.

Section III. Declaration/Notarization:

- This section is completed by the entity named under “To” in the header. This is the entity who will be responding to the subpoena.

*The sender should enter the name of the entity they are sending the form to where it states:
“This section is to be completed by _____.”*

- Depending on their state law, the responding person will check either the “Notarized” box if required OR the “Witnessed” box.

The person responding to the subpoena must indicate in the statement that under penalty of perjury the foregoing is true, and check either “declare”, “certify”, “verify”, or “state”. Include the date the statement was executed on the “date” field.

- The person responding to this subpoena must notarize this declaration if required by their state law. The space below the declaration statement may be used to include notary information.
- If witnessed, the space below the declaration statement may be used.
- The person responding to this subpoena will copy this page and return it with requested documentation.

Section IV. Contact information:

The person issuing the subpoena signs in the “Authorized Agent Signature” field.

- Complete the signature and information for the authorized agent issuing this subpoena, including the date the subpoena is signed; the authorized agent signature and printed name; and the authorized person’s e-mail (if available), direct telephone number, and fax number.

Encryption Requirements:

When communicating this form through electronic transmission, precautions must be taken to ensure the security of the data. Child support agencies are encouraged to use the electronic applications provided by the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement. Other electronic means, such as encrypted attachments to e-mails, may be used if the encryption method is compliant with Federal Information Processing Standard (FIPS) Publication 140-2 (FIPS PUB 140-2).
