

INDIAN CHILD WELFARE QUARTERLY AND ANNUAL REPORT

There are two parts to the Indian Child Welfare Quarterly and Annual Report: Part A – Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) Data, and Part B – Child Abuse and Neglect Data.

Part A: All Tribes/Grantees must complete Part A.

Part B: Only those Tribes/Grantees or BIA Agencies that operate a child protection program should complete Part B. If the Tribe’s child protection program is carried out by the State or BIA, then Part B of this form is not required by the Tribe. If the BIA is operating the child protection program for the Tribe, the BIA Agency is responsible for submitting Part B.

Note: This report captures information about services needed and provided for Indian children and families.

Indian child means any unmarried person who is under age 18 and either: (1) Is a member or citizen of an Indian Tribe; or (2) Is eligible for membership or citizenship in an Indian Tribe and is the biological child of a member/citizen of an Indian Tribe. 25 CFR §23.2.
