A straight-life annuity provides a fixed monthly benefit for the rest of your life only. No survivor benefit will be

EXAMPLE: Sam elects a straight-life annuity, and he receives $500 a month for the rest of his life. After Sam dies, Carol does not receive any benefits.

O D. Joint-and-50% Survivor Annuity ? Description

A joint-and-survivor annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount with 60% of that reduced amount to be paid to your beneficiary if you die before that person. If your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit will remain at the reduced level, and no survivor benefits will be payable when you die.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary
- · If you are married:
  - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
  - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
    - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
    - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $450 a month for the rest of his life. If Sam dies first, Carol receives $225 a month for the rest of her life. If Carol dies first, Sam continues to receive $450 a month for the rest of his life.

O E. Joint-and-75% Survivor Annuity 📀 Description

A joint-and-survivor annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount with 75% of that reduced amount to be paid to your beneficiary if you die before that person. If your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit will remain at the reduced level, and no survivor benefits will be payable when you die.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- · You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary.

O G. Joint-and-50% Survivor "Pop-up" Annuity 2 Description

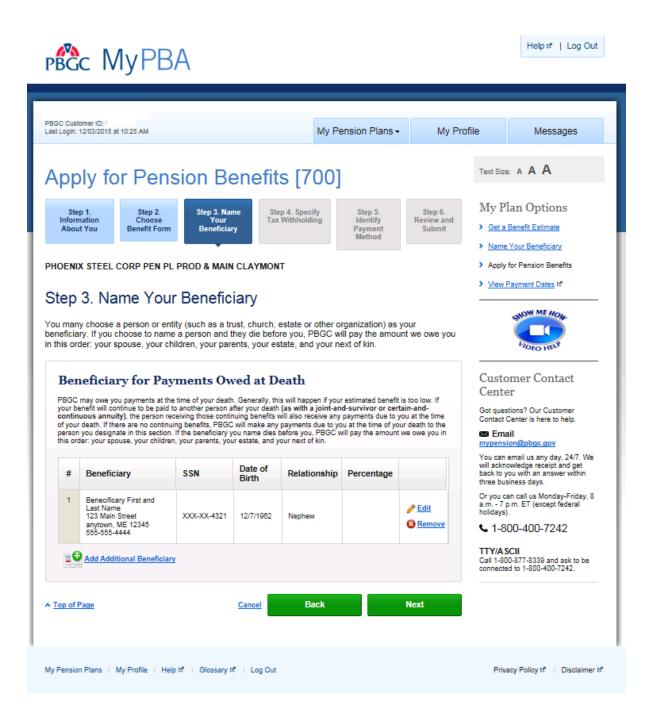

The "pop-up" annuity is the same as the joint-and-50% survivor annuity (D) except that if your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit "pops up" to the straight-life annuity amount.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- · You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- · You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary
- · If you are married:
  - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
  - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
    - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
    - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam elects a joint-and-50% survivor "pop-up" annuity and receives a payment of $444 a month. Sam dies first, Carol receives $222 a month for the rest of her life. However, if Carol dies first, Sam's benefit "pops up" to his straight-life annuity benefit amount of $500 a month for the rest of his life.

Name Your Beneficiary PHOENIX STEEL CORPORATION SALARIED Why do I need to designate a beneficiary? PBGC may owe you money at the time of your death. Typically, this happens if your final benefit is higher han the estimated benefit we had been paying. If another person continues to receive your benefit after your leath (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), PBGC will pay any money owed to that person. If there are no continuing benefits or the person designated to receive continuing benefits dies pefore you, PBGC will pay any money owed you at the time of your death to the person(s) and/or entity(ies) such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) that you designate in this section. If you do not make a lesignation, or if the beneficiary is a person and dies before you, PBGC will pay the money in this order to: nour spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, or your next of kin. Don't remember if you have named a beneficiary? Send us an email at MyPension@pbgc.gov , and ask us to look it up.
