Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

HUD collects information in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 5422(g) (section 623(g) of the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974). This Dispute Resolution Certification Form will be used for states to self-certify the adequacy of the state's dispute resolution program and for HUD to review that self-certification. Acceptance of your state's program will be determined by reviewing whether the response to Part II of this form complies with the requirements of 24 C.F.R. 3 288.205. All information provided is voluntary. Failure to provide information could delay the processing of the certification. HUD generally discloses this data only in response to a Freedom of Information request or to a state, local agency, and the agency and person who are involved and/or all businesses that are affected by the dispute.
