

Expanded Home Loan Eligibility to Certain National Guard Veterans and Service Members

1. Purpose: The purpose of this Circular is to announce expanded eligibility for the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) home loan benefits for certain members of the National Guard and to provide guidance on the process for obtaining a Certificate of Eligibility (COE).

2. Background: Section 2101 of Public Law 116-315, the “Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020”, amended 38 U.S.C. §§ 3701(b) and 3702(a) by expanding the definition of Veteran for purposes of VA home loan benefits. The expansion includes certain individuals who performed full-time National Guard duty, as that term is defined in 10 U.S.C. § 101.

3. Impact: Certain members of the Army National Guard of the United States or the Air National Guard of the United States are now eligible for VA home loan benefits. To be eligible, the member must have performed not less than 90 cumulative days of full-time National Guard duty, of which, at least 30 of those days must have been consecutive.¹

a. Full-time National Guard duty includes training or other duty in the member's status as a member of the National Guard of a State or territory, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or the District of Columbia under 32 U.S.C. §§ 316, 502, 503, 504, or 505 for which the member is entitled to pay from the United States or for which the member has waived pay from the United States.²

b. Full-time National Guard duty does not include inactive duty, such as monthly drills. It also does not include basic or initial training.³

4. Retroactive Applicability: The Public Law also made the eligibility expansion retroactive to apply to current and former National Guard members, regardless of service dates, who meet the requirements set forth in paragraph 3.

5. COE: This Circular applies to COE applications received by VA on or after January 5, 2021. Applicants who may have been previously denied VA home loan benefits and now meet the requirements for eligibility are encouraged to reapply. When submitting a COE application, VA Form 26-1880, to VA, applicants can avoid COE processing delays by listing any active duty time served under 32 U.S.C. §§ 316, 502, 503, 504, or 505 in block 9c. Applicants can also help
