Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 204 (a) and 1129, of the Social Security Act, as amended, and the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on your request.

We will use the information to make a determination regarding the payment of your Civil Monetary Penalty debt. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To third party contacts such as private collection agencies and credit reporting agencies under contract with Social Security Administration (SSA) and other agencies, including the Veterans Administration, the Armed Forces, the Department of the Treasury, and State motor vehicle agencies, for the purpose of their assisting SSA in recovering program debt; and
- To third party contacts where the party contacted may have information needed to establish or verify information relevant and necessary to a civil or administrative investigation by the Office of Inspector General (OIG) or in preparation for proceedings pursuant to section 1128A of the Social Security Act, and "Civil Money Penalties."

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0094, entitled Recovery of Overpayments, Accounting and Reporting/Debt Management System as published in the Federal Register (FR) on August 23, 2005, at 70 FR 49354 and the SSA, OIG's SORN OIG-002, entitled Civil and Administrative Investigative Files of the Inspector General, SSA/OIG, as published in the FR on April 19, 1995, at 60 FR 19619 (duplicating and incorporating by reference Health and Human Resources (HHS) system of records number 09-90-0100, entitled Civil and Administrative Investigative Files of the Inspector General, HHS/OS/OIG, as published in the FR on September 30, 1982, at 47 FR 43190). Instructions for Completing the Form SSA-640 - Financial Disclosure for a Civil Monetary Penalty (CMP) Debt

When to Use this Form

This form is used to collect financial information from an individual who owes a CMP debt. SSA will use this information collected in making decisions concerning repayment of the CMP.

EVIDENCE. When you file a request about how you will repay the CMP debt, you need to present any papers you have verifying your financial statements. This would include items such as current bank statements, utility bills, pay stubs, credit card payments, loan payments, etc. If you do not have these records immediately available, do not delay filing this form. You have up to 30 days from filing your request concerning repayment of the CMP to supply them.

The following section explains how to complete the SSA-640. The SSA-640 along with supporting financial documentation should be either returned to the address that is on the return envelope that was included with this form. If you have further questions about the SSA-640, you may contact the SSA office that gave you this form.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE SSA-640 FORM:

- A. Print the name of the person who owes the CMP debt.
- B. Enter the Social Security Number of the person who owes the CMP debt.

YOUR FINANCIAL STATEMENT

- 1. - 3. Answer in all cases, filling in the narrative portions.

Members of Household

- 4. List your dependents who live with you regardless of relation.

ASSETS - Things You Have and Own

- 5. List for yourself and anyone listed in #4. Be sure to list both the balances and the income earned each month.
- 6. Be sure to list the vehicles and real property for both yourself and your household members.

Monthly Household Income

- 7. through 9. Read each question carefully, filling in the blanks with incomes for you, your spouse, and all other individuals listed in #4. Make sure to list on a monthly basis. The note above question #5 tells you how to handle weekly, biweekly and yearly amounts.

Monthly Household Expenses

- 10. List the total household expenses, again converting to monthly figures.
Please note that if you used a credit card to pay for any expenses, check the "CC" column for that expense. The expense amount will reflect $0. Be sure to factor in the amount of your credit card payments under line F.

Income and Expenses Comparison

- 11. through 13. Complete as indicated.

Remarks: Use to continue answers to prior questions. Make sure to put the question number, to which you are referring, first. If you need more space, continue on any blank sheet of paper.

Signature Of Person Owing CMP

Please be sure to sign and date, list your mailing address and the phone number(s) where we may reach you

Where to Send the Form

After you have completed and signed this form, fold it in thirds, insert it in the return envelope that came with the form and mail it. Use the return envelope provided so that this form goes to the SSA office that is handling your request.
