Sections 205(a) and 1631(e) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision for Social Security benefits.

We will use the information you provide to request evidence, information or proofs that may support your benefit application or payment continuation. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To third party contacts, where necessary, to establish or verify information provided by representative payees or representative payee applicants; and

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0089, entitled Claims Folders System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on October 31, 2019, at 84 FR 58422.
