TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Sexual Risk Avoidance Education National Evaluation Data Capacity Building Grantee Feedback

PURPOSE: The Sexual Risk Avoidance Education National Evaluation (SRAENE) - funded by the Family Youth and Services Bureau and the Office of Planning, Research, and Evaluation, both within the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) - includes a Data and Evaluation Support component. This component includes Data Capacity Building (DCB) through a range of activities to develop SRAE grantees’ ability to use data and research to improve their programming and, ultimately, outcomes for youth. DCB activities are meant to help grantees understand, create, collect, manage, analyze, and use data, with the overall goal of fostering an environment that prioritizes the use of data for program monitoring and improvement. We propose to gather feedback directly from grantees on DCB activities in an effort to continuously improve these activities.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS: Respondents include staff or consultants within 1) community-based organizations (i.e., private sector) and 2) state or local public health departments that are recipients of SRAE grants funding.
