Evaluation of the Child Welfare Capacity Building Collaborative

Court Improvement Program (CIP) Leadership Interview

The purpose of the interview is to obtain information from CIP Directors regarding factors that influence their decisions to engage in services with the CB-supported Capacity Building Collaborative (specifically the Center for Courts); perceptions of the capacity building services received; and satisfaction with the Center's services.

Interview Code: C ____

Introduction:

Good morning/afternoon. My name is _____. I am calling from James Bell Associates, an evaluation firm based in Arlington, VA. As you may know, James Bell Associates and ICF have been contracted by the Children's Bureau to conduct an independent evaluation of the Children's Bureau's Capacity Building Collaborative, which includes of the Center for States, Center for Tribes, and Center for Courts.

Directions to interviewer – please inform the interviewee:

This evaluation addresses the role of the Capacity Building Collaborative in helping States, Tribes, and Court Improvement Programs (CIPs) to support and enhance the capacity of their child welfare systems. The Leadership Interview is an important component of the evaluation. We are conducting these telephone interviews with all State child welfare directors as well as CIP directors and Tribal child welfare directors who receive capacity building services from the Centers.

I am going to ask you about the factors that may influence your decisions to use the services of the Capacity Building Collaborative and your experiences with the services you have received from the Center for Courts.

Your participation in this interview is voluntary but important to this evaluation. We anticipate that our discussion with you today will take approximately 40 minutes. Your privacy is important to us. As we have noted in scheduling this interview with you, in order for us to ensure that we accurately capture everything, we would like to audio record this interview. The recording will be destroyed as soon as we transcribe it and we will remove all identifying information from the transcript. Responses that you provide will be combined with answers from other respondents and will not be associated with your agency or you as an individual respondent. Do we have your permission to audio record this conversation? [Interviewer: Wait for the response] Do you have any questions or concerns before we begin?

I will now start the recording. [Interviewer: Begin audio recording]

A. RESPONDENT BACKGROUND

A1. What is your official position title?

A2. How long have you been in this position?
_____years or _____months

B. THE CAPACITY BUILDING CENTER

First a question about the Capacity Building Center for Courts.

B1. How familiar are you with the Capacity Building Center for Courts and its services? Please describe.

C. ASSESSMENT AND WORK PLANNING

Interviewer: CIPs conduct an annual self-assessment that is submitted to CB.

C1. Did your program's understanding/awareness of the strengths and gaps in your court system increase through the self-assessment process? Please briefly explain.

- a. Did the Center for Courts conduct any additional assessment of your CIP's/courts' capacity building needs?
- b. If yes → How useful, or not, was the Center assessment to your program?
  - i. Did your CIP's capacity to self-assess its capacity building needs increase through the Center assessment process? Please briefly explain.
  - ii. How accurately did the Center assessment summary identify your CIP's capacity building needs?

C2. Was a work plan developed with the Center for Courts?

If no, skip to C3

- a) In your opinion, how useful, or not, was the work plan?
- b) Did the work planning process help you to achieve things that you would not have achieved without the Center?

C3. In addition, did your CIP also participate in any way in the State assessment process that was conducted with the Center for States?

- a. If yes → Was your CIP an active participant in during the State assessment? Please describe.

C4. Do you have additional thoughts that you would like to share regarding your CIP's experiences with the assessment process (or the work plan that was developed with the Center)?
