Study Release:

Dear [NAME], we are sorry that you did not get a chance to complete your prenatal survey for Feeding My Baby and Me Study by the last date. As you know when you joined the study, your enrollment in the study is final only after you complete the first survey before your baby is born. We regret to let you know that we are releasing you from the study and you will no longer be able to participate. Thank you for your time and interest. We wish you and your baby the best.
