PARENTAL PERMISSION

FOR ONE YOUTH

Your (AGE) year-old child has been selected to be in this study. Your child's participation is voluntary. This online interview asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health related issues. All of your child's answers will be confidential and used only for statistical purposes. The child must complete the interview at home with at least one parent present in the home for the entire interview. As the parent providing permission, if you cannot be at home for the entire interview, please advise another parent in the home of your child's participation in the study. It is important for your child to take part in this interview in a private location within the home where no one else can see the answers, including parents.

Your child may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make your child feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Your child can refuse to answer any questions and can stop the interview at any time. If your child becomes upset during the interview and wishes to speak to a mental health professional about how they are feeling, a toll-free helpline number is provided. If you have questions about your child's rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).

If your child has to stop the interview, after 15 minutes they will be logged out automatically and will need the Participant Code from the letter to resume their interview at the point where they exited. However, if they stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of their answers will be removed for security purposes to protect their privacy – they will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but they will need to start over.

Do I have your permission to interview your child for this study?

YES: Thank you! Now, I need to speak to your child. PROCEED TO "YOUTH ASSENT" SECTION BY CLICKING SAVE.

NO: Thank you for your time. END CALL. PARENT REFUSAL HAS BEEN MARKED, ENTER NOTES AND CLICK SAVE.

FOR TWO YOUTHS THAT SHARE PARENT/GUARDIAN

Your (AGE) year-old child and (AGE) year-old child have been selected to be in this study. Your children's participation is voluntary. This online interview asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health related issues. All of your children's answers will be confidential and used only for statistical purposes. Both children must complete the interview at home with at least one parent present in the home for the entirety of both interviews. As the parent providing permission, if you cannot be at home for the entirety of both interviews, please advise another parent in the home of your children's participation in the study. It is important for your children to take part in this interview in a private location within the home where no one else can see the answers, including parents.

Your children may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make them feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Your children can refuse to answer any questions and can stop the interview at any time. If either of your children become upset during the interview and wishes to speak to a mental health professional about how they are feeling, a toll-free helpline number is provided. If you have questions about your children's rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).

If either child has to stop the interview, after 15 minutes they will be logged out automatically and will need the Participant Code from the letter to resume their interview at the point where they exited. However, if they stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of their answers will be removed for security purposes to protect their privacy – they will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but they will need to start over.

Do I have your permission to interview your children for this study?

YES: Thank you! Now, I need to speak to (your child/each child separately).
SELECT A OR B, THEN PROCEED WITH THE QUESTION BELOW.

NO: Thank you for your time. END CALL. PARENT REFUSAL HAS BEEN MARKED, ENTER NOTES AND CLICK SAVE.

SPEAKING WITH A [AGE] YEAR OLD [GENDER]

WHEN SPEAKING WITH CHILD: Before we begin, I need to ensure your privacy. Are you at home?

YES: PROCEED BELOW

NO: It is very important that you complete the online interview at home. I cannot allow you to start the interview at this time. Please have your parent/guardian call us back at 1-800-848-4079 when your parent or guardian is available to talk and when you are available to begin the online interview. Thank you for your time. END CALL. ENTER NOTES AND CLICK SAVE.

This year, about 70,000 people across the nation will complete this interview. You have been randomly chosen to take part. You will represent over 1,000 young people in this country who are similar to you. You may choose not to take part in this study, but no one else can take your place. When you finish the interview, you will receive a $30 gift card.

This study asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health issues. The data you provide are confidential. Only the combined responses from all 70,000 people will be reported, not just one person's answers.

While the interview has some personal questions, federal law keeps your answers private. Your participation is voluntary. You can quit the interview at any time by closing your browser window and you can refuse to answer any questions.

It is recommended you complete the entire interview in one sitting, which takes about an hour, depending on your answers.

If you have to stop the interview, after 15 minutes you will be logged out automatically and will need your Participant Code to resume the interview at the point where you exited. However, if you stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of your answers will be removed for security purposes to protect your privacy – you will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but you will need to start over.

You may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make you feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Remember, you can refuse to answer any questions and you can stop the interview at any time. If you become upset during the interview and wish to speak to a mental health professional about how you are feeling, you can call the toll-free helpline number provided in the online interview. If you have questions about your rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).

Before you begin, I need to confirm several key requirements.

PARENTAL PERMISSION

FOR ONE YOUTH

Your (AGE) year-old child has been selected to be in this study. Your child's participation is voluntary. This online interview asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health related issues. All of your child's answers will be confidential and used only for statistical purposes. The child must complete the interview at home with at least one parent present in the home for the entire interview. As the parent providing permission, if you cannot be at home for the entire interview, please advise another parent in the home of your child's participation in the study. It is important for your child to take part in this interview in a private location within the home where no one else can see the answers, including parents.

Your child may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make your child feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Your child can refuse to answer any questions and can stop the interview at any time. If your child becomes upset during the interview and wishes to speak to a mental health professional about how they are feeling, a toll-free helpline number is provided. If you have questions about your child's rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).

If your child has to stop the interview, after 15 minutes they will be logged out automatically and will need the Participant Code from the letter to resume their interview at the point where they exited. However, if they stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of their answers will be removed for security purposes to protect their privacy – they will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but they will need to start over.

Do I have your permission to interview your child for this study?

YES: Thank you! Now, I need to speak to your child. PROCEED TO "YOUTH ASSENT" SECTION BY CLICKING SAVE.

NO: Thank you for your time. END CALL. PARENT REFUSAL HAS BEEN MARKED, ENTER NOTES AND CLICK SAVE.

FOR TWO YOUTHS THAT SHARE PARENT/GUARDIAN

Your (AGE) year-old child and (AGE) year-old child have been selected to be in this study. Your children's participation is voluntary. This online interview asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health related issues. All of your children's answers will be confidential and used only for statistical purposes. Both children must complete the interview at home with at least one parent present in the home for the entirety of both interviews. As the parent providing permission, if you cannot be at home for the entirety of both interviews, please advise another parent in the home of your children's participation in the study. It is important for your children to take part in this interview in a private location within the home where no one else can see the answers, including parents.

Your children may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make them feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Your children can refuse to answer any questions and can stop the interview at any time.

If either of your children become upset during the interview and wishes to speak to a mental health professional about how they are feeling, a toll-free helpline number is provided. If you have questions about your children's rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).

If either child has to stop the interview, after 15 minutes they will be logged out automatically and will need the Participant Code from the letter to resume their interview at the point where they exited. However, if they stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of their answers will be removed for security purposes to protect their privacy – they will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but they will need to start over.

This year, about 70,000 people across the nation will complete this interview. You have been randomly chosen to take part. You will represent over 1,000 young people in this country who are similar to you. You may choose not to take part in this study, but no one else can take your place. When you finish the interview, you will receive a $30 gift card.

This study asks about tobacco, alcohol, and drug use or non-use, knowledge and attitudes about drugs, mental health, and other health issues. The data you provide are confidential. Only the combined responses from all 70,000 people will be reported, not just one person's answers.

While the interview has some personal questions, federal law keeps your answers private. Your participation is voluntary. You can quit the interview at any time by closing your browser window and you can refuse to answer any questions.

It is recommended you complete the entire interview in one sitting, which takes about an hour, depending on your answers.

If you have to stop the interview, after 15 minutes you will be logged out automatically and will need your Participant Code to resume the interview at the point where you exited. However, if you stop the interview and do not resume within 24 hours, all of your answers will be removed for security purposes to protect your privacy – you will still be able to complete the interview and receive a $30 gift card but you will need to start over.

You may consider some of the questions to be sensitive in nature and some questions may also make you feel certain emotions, such as sadness. For example, the interview asks questions about criminal history, depression, suicide and other topics. Remember, you can refuse to answer any questions and you can stop the interview at any time. If you become upset during the interview and wish to speak to a mental health professional about how you are feeling, you can call the toll-free helpline number provided in the online interview. If you have questions about your rights as a study participant, call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number).
