Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 205(c)(2)(B)(i)(I) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from properly crediting your earnings record, which may result in errors in benefit payment amounts to future beneficiaries.

We will use the information you provide to notify your employer of your assigned Social Security number (SSN), for wage reporting purposes. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To the Social Security agency of a foreign country, to carry out the purpose of an international Social Security agreement entered into between the United States and the other country, pursuant to section 233 of the Social Security Act; and
- To the Department of Justice (DOJ), Federal Bureau of Investigation and United States Attorney's Offices, and to the Department of Homeland Security, United States Secret Service, for investigating and prosecuting violations of the Social Security Act.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0058, entitled Master Files of Social Security Number (SSN) Holders and SSN Applications, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on December 29, 2010, at 75 FR 82121; and 60-0059, entitled Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1819.
