DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman

CASE INTAKE FORM

The Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman (OIDO) reviews cases submitted by, or on behalf of, individuals affected by misconduct, excessive force, or violations of law, rights, policy, or standards in immigration detention settings by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Please note that OIDO cannot provide legal advice. It is an independent office within DHS and is not part of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

PURPOSE OF THIS FORM

To receive assistance regarding an incident that occurred while in immigration detention, please submit this form. OIDO will examine the case and, upon verification, seek to resolve the matter or provide redress as appropriate.

The incident for which this form is being submitted must be related to an allegation of:

- Misconduct,
- Excessive force,
- Violation of an individual detainee's rights, and/or
- Violations of law, standards of professional conduct, contract terms, or policy related to immigration detention.

OIDO does not review or adjudicate requests to reconsider the determination to detain an individual, the reasons for such immigration detention, the denial of a request for release from immigration detention (including parole), or the standards for considering requests for release.

AND

The alleged misconduct or violation(s) must have been committed by:

- DHS (CBP or ICE) officers or employees, including,
- o Contracted, subcontracted, or cooperating personnel or
- o A contract service provider.

If your situation does not meet these criteria, or to view a list of other DHS avenues for providing feedback or filing a complaint, visit https://www.dhs.gov/how-do-i/provide-feedback-dhs.

WHO SHOULD SUBMIT THIS FORM?

• A current or former detainee who is seeking assistance regarding an incident that occurred, or is occurring, while in DHS custody.

- An individual submitting this form on behalf of a current or former detainee, as his or her representative, to whom an incident occurred, or is occurring, while in DHS custody. This may include a family member or an attorney/accredited representative.
- An individual submitting the form anonymously.

DHS employees who wish to file complaints related to allegations of misconduct should do so with the DHS Office of Inspector General (OIG) and/or the DHS Office of Special Counsel. If a DHS employee submits an allegation to OIDO, the matter will be referred to OIG. DHS employees are reminded that it is unlawful for agencies to take, or threaten to take, a personnel action against an employee because she/he disclosed wrongdoing. DHS employees may contact the DHS Whistleblower Protection Coordinator at Whistleblowerprotectioncoordinator@oig.dhs.gov for questions regarding protected disclosures or information regarding rights and remedies of whistleblowers.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIS FORM

- Type or print legibly in black or blue ink.
- If extra space is needed, you may attach additional pages to this form.
- For questions that do not apply, please write "N/A."
- Please attach copies of any documents or information that will help OIDO review the case. Do not send original documents.
- This form is not required to submit a case to OIDO, and it is not required that all fields be completed. However, a properly completed form ensures that OIDO receives the necessary information to assist with a case. If you do not use the form, or do not complete all fields, you may experience a delay in the processing of your case.
- There is no fee for submitting a request to OIDO.

WHERE TO SUBMIT THIS FORM

Please submit your completed, signed, and dated form, including any supporting documentation, to the Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman by one of the following means:

- E-Mail: detentionombudsman@hq.dhs.gov
- Fax: 202-282-8482
- U.S. Mail and/or Expedited Delivery Services:

U.S. Department of Homeland Security Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman, Mail Stop #0134 2707 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave. SE Washington, DC 20528

Due to security measures with the U.S. Government mail system, cases mailed (even those sent by expedited delivery services) may be delayed.

Authority for Collecting Information
The functions of the Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman are to:
(1) Establish and administer an independent, neutral, and confidential process to receive, investigate, resolve, and provide redress, including referral for investigation to the Office of Inspector General, referral to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services for immigration relief, or any other action determined appropriate, for cases in which Department of Homeland Security (DHS) officers or other personnel, or contracted, subcontracted, or cooperating entity personnel, are found to have engaged in misconduct or violated the rights of individuals in immigration detention;
(2) Establish an accessible and standardized process regarding complaints against any officer or employee of U.S. Customs and Border Protection or U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, or any contracted, subcontracted, or cooperating entity personnel, for violations of law, standards of professional conduct, contract terms, or policy related to immigration detention;
(3) Conduct unannounced inspections of detention facilities holding individuals in federal immigration custody, including those owned or operated by units of State or local government and privately-owned or operated facilities;
(4) Review, examine, and make recommendations to address concerns or violations of contract terms identified in reviews, audits, investigations, or detainee interviews regarding immigration detention facilities and services;
(5) Provide assistance to individuals affected by potential misconduct, excessive force, or violations of law or detention standards by DHS officers or other personnel, or contracted, subcontracted, or cooperating entity personnel; and
(6) Ensure that the functions performed by the Ombudsman are complementary to existing functions within DHS Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-296, § 405(b) (codified at 6 U.S.C. § 205(b)), as added by Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020, Pub. L. No. 116-93,§106 (2019).

All information submitted to the Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman (OIDO) is collected and protected under the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. By submitting this information to OIDO, your consent allows OIDO to investigate any potential misconduct or violations in relation to immigration detention.

AUTHORITY: DHS is authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to section 405 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-296 (codified at 6 U.S.C. § 205), as added by Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2020, §106, Pub. L. No. 116-93, 133 Stat. 2504.

PURPOSE: DHS Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman (OIDO) is requesting this information to resolve cases brought forth by individuals or investigations regarding potential violations of law, individual rights, standards of professional conduct, contract terms, or policy related to immigration detention by any officer or employee of CBP, ICE, or any contracted, subcontracted, or cooperating entity personnel.

ROUTINE USES: The information requested on this form may be shared within DHS based on a need to know basis and externally pursuant to routine uses to assist the DHS in reviewing and resolving complaints. A complete list of the routine uses can be found in the system of records notices associated with this form, including DHS/ALL-020 Department of Homeland Security Internal Affairs and DHS/ALL-025 Law Enforcement Authority in Support of the Protection of Property Owned, Occupied, or Secured by the Department of Homeland Security System of Records. Additionally, DHS plans to publish a new SORN to cover the records and uses with OIDO's collection, named DHS/OIDO-001 Office of the Immigration Detention Ombudsman System of Records. For those individuals not covered by the Privacy Act, additional information can be found in the Privacy Impact Assessment, DHS/OIDO/PIA-001 Immigration Detention Case Management System. All can be found at: https://www.dhs.gov/privacy.

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION: Providing this information is voluntary. However, failure to provide this information may result in the inability of DHS to process or investigate the complaint.
