

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency
Supporting Statement
Customer Complaint Form
OMB Control No. 1557-0232

A. Justification.

1. *Circumstances that make the collection necessary:

The customer complaint form was developed as a courtesy for customers who contact the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's (OCC) Customer Assistance Group (CAG) and wish to file a formal, written complaint. The form offers a template for customers to use to focus their issues and identify the information necessary to provide a complete picture of their concerns. Use of the form is entirely voluntary; however, use of the form does help avoid the processing delays associated with incomplete complaints and allows CAG to process complaints more efficiently.

This collection of information is solicited pursuant to the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. 57a(f)(1), the purpose of which is to prevent unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce, including acts or practices which are unfair or deceptive to customers by banks. Agencies must establish a separate division of consumer affairs to receive and take appropriate action upon complaints with respect to such acts or practices by banks subject to its jurisdiction.

2. *Use of the information:

CAG uses the information included in a completed form to create a record of the customer's contact, capture information that can be used to resolve the customer's issues, and provide a database of information that is incorporated into the OCC's supervisory process.

3. *Consideration of the use of improved information technology:

Respondents may use any available information technology to complete the form. Customers can access the form at the www.HelpWithMyBank.gov web site. The web site is available to assist customers of national banks or federal savings associations (thrifts) and other financial institutions with questions common to all banking customers. The OCC's www.occ.gov web site also provides a link to the www.HelpWithMyBank.gov web site. Customers have the option to file a complaint using an on-line form for which they will receive an email confirmation or download a PDF form that can be completed and mailed or faxed to the CAG. The on-line form is available in English only, while the PDF form is available in both English and Spanish language formats.

The on-line form contains sections that match the PDF form, which are presented on a single visible page. Required fields also are highlighted and asterisked for user friendliness. The customer can navigate forwards and backwards through the form using the “Next” and “Previous” links at the bottom of each section. The form contains an on-line certification that replaces the PDF form’s signature line and provides the Privacy Act Statement. Customers are able to print the on-line submission when complete. The on-line form streamlines the customer complaint process by providing a form that is accessible for submission at any time.

4. *Efforts to identify duplication:

The information collected is not duplicated elsewhere.

5. *If the collection of information impacts small businesses or other small entities, describe any methods used to minimize burden.
