

ED-900B – Beneficiary Information Form

Please note: in order to be complete, this form must be signed and dated in two places, following section D and section E.

By signing this form, the beneficiary is providing an estimate of jobs and private investment that are projected as a result if the project is funded and is not a legal assurance. While the ED-900B does not create a repayment obligation if the estimates are not achieved, EDA expects the form to represent a good-faith estimate of projected impact as a result of the proposed investment. EDA carefully reviews project impacts from the ED-900B against publicly available data to gauge the reasonableness of estimates provided based on project type, geography and past work and estimates and information reported erroneously can impact the competitiveness of applications.

Lead Applicant:

EDA provides competitive grant assistance to eligible public entities to support the construction of public infrastructure that helps create the competitive environment where companies can create and retain jobs and invest private capital.

This form must be completed by an authorized or corporate representative of the identified beneficiary organization whose position reflects the authority required to make these assurances (such as the authority to hire employees). Legal authorization for a corporate official may be specified in the Corporation's or LLC's formation documentation, bylaws, or similar document and under the laws governing the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam and the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands. In the case of an individual executing this form as a sole proprietor or private owner, the sole proprietor's or owner's role and position must be indicated. C. Estimated Impact of the EDA Investment

C.1. Complete the table below to specify the number of long-term, full time direct jobs and private investment that are estimated to be realized as a result of the proposed EDA investment. For the purposes of completing the table in this section:

- Jobs created should be a direct result of this project. For example, a water or sewer project that will service a firm and allow the firm to grow its capacity and hire 60 full-time workers. In this example, 60 would be entered in the table under jobs created.
- Jobs saved means that without this project the jobs listed would be lost. For example, a company is experiencing adverse production impacts due to ongoing disruptions to its wastewater system. If the disruptions continue, it could jeopardize the company's ability to continue operating at the location and risks 40 jobs being lost. If the proposed project would address the disruption and allow the plant to continue operating at the proposed site, then those 40 jobs would be identified as jobs saved. Please note, the current number of employees of a beneficiary should not be included as jobs saved unless there is a confirmed threat that the jobs would be lost (i.e., the company would move or close) if the project were not undertaken.
- Only long-term, full-time direct jobs should be listed in the table. Part-time jobs should be converted to full-time equivalents (sum the total part-time hours worked per week and divide by the hourly work week for full-time employees, normally 35-40 hours).
- Private Investment means the total private sector capital investment made because of the EDA investment, including investments in new plant and equipment. Do not report private sector contributions to project construction or loan fund capitalization reported above in this section.

Jobs Created	Jobs Saved	Private Investment

C.2. Identify the basis for the estimated number of jobs that will be created or saved for your organization.

C.3. Describe the type of private investment likely to be generated.

C.4. Describe the timeframe associated with the jobs and private investment identified in the table above:

C.5. Briefly explain any other ways that this project will benefit your business or organization.

D. Provision of Data on the EDA Investment

The Economic Development Administration (EDA) tracks job and private investment resulting from its awards. If this application results in an award, each beneficiary must provide to the successful recipient job and private investment results up to 9 years after the EDA grant award in order to assist the grantee with fulfilling these reporting requirements.

- Check box to indicate that your company intends to provide the recipient with information on jobs and private investment generated as a result of the EDA project.
