Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information could prevent us from making an accurate decision on your benefits.

Important Information About Your Appeal, Waiver Rights, and Repayment Options

If you think we made a mistake when we decided that you were overpaid or in the amount of the overpayment, you have the right to ask us to look at the overpayment decision again within 60 days of this notice. This is called a RECONSIDERATION. (See next page for an explanation.)

Even if you agree that you were overpaid, you have the right to ask that we do not recover the overpayment. This is called a WAIVER. (See next page for an explanation.)

You have the right to ask for either Reconsideration, Waiver, or both. You may also wish to use one of the repayment options listed on page 4.

How to Request Waiver or Reconsideration

You or someone who will represent you should call, write or visit your local Social Security office to help you complete the necessary forms which are:

- SSA-561-U2, Request for Reconsideration
- SSA-632-F4 Request for Waiver of Overpayment Recovery or Change in Repayment Rate

You may find these forms online at www.socialsecurity.gov. If you want to request Reconsideration or Waiver, but do not want to call or visit an office, fill out the tear-off form on the last page of this notice. Return the completed form in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

Reconsideration

If you request Reconsideration, the overpayment decision will be reviewed by a Social Security employee who did not participate in the original overpayment decision.

If you request Reconsideration within 30 days from the date of this notice, we will not start to withhold any part of your benefits. However, after 30 days we will start to withhold part or all of your benefits.

If you request Reconsideration within 60 days from the date of this notice, we will suspend any withholding while the overpayment decision is being reviewed. Also, if we asked you to refund the overpayment, you will not have to make any refund while the overpayment decision is being reviewed.

If you do not appeal within the 60 day time limit, you may lose your right to this appeal. If you have a good reason (such as hospitalization) for not appealing within the time limits, we may give you more time. A request for more time must be made to us in writing, stating the reason for the delay.

Waiver

If you request Waiver of recovery of the overpayment and your request is approved, you will not have to repay the overpayment.

We will approve your waiver request if:

1. The overpayment was not your fault and repaying it would mean you could not pay your necessary living expenses, OR
2. The overpayment was not your fault and repaying it would be unfair to you.

There is no time limit on your right to request waiver.

If you request Waiver within 30 days from the date of this notice, we will not start withholding any part of your benefits.

If you request Waiver after 30 days, we will suspend any withholding while we consider your Waiver request. If we asked you to refund the overpayment, you will not have to make any refund while your waiver request is being considered.

If we cannot approve your Waiver request, we will contact you to schedule a Personal Conference. At that conference, you or your representative may explain why you should not have to repay the overpayment.

Also, you or your representative may present witnesses on your behalf and, if you wish, question any witnesses that we used in making the determination being reviewed.

We will notify you in writing of the result of your Waiver request, and whether you must repay the overpayment. That notice will explain your right to appeal. If you do not want a Personal Conference, you still have the right to appeal. We will notify you of other appeal rights.
