General Instructions

Purpose Of Form

Use Form 4506-B to request under section 6104:

- A copy of an exempt organization's exemption application or letter.

Don't complete Form 4506-B to get copies of the following forms and information:

- Copies of an exempt or political organization's return, report, or notice (Form 990, 990-PF, 990-T, etc.) can be requested by submitting Form 4506-A, Request for a Copy of Exempt or Political Organization IRS Form, or if received in 2018 and subsequent are available on Tax Exempt Organization Search (TEOS), www.irs.gov/teos.
- You may view Form 990-N, Electronic Notice (e-Postcard) for Tax-Exempt Organizations Not Required to File Form 990 or 990-EZ, filings at Tax Exempt Organization Search (TEOS), www.irs.gov/teos.
- The machine readable data for the efiled Forms 990, 990-EZ and 990-PF are available for download from Amazon Web Services (AWS) www.aws.amazon.com/public-datasets/irs-990/ and Tax Exempt Organization Search (TEOS) www.irs.gov/charities-non-profits/tax-exempt-organization-search-bulk-data-downloads.
- Form 8871, Political Organization Notice of Section 527 Status, and Form 8872, Political Organization Report of Contributions and Expenditures, are available for inspection and printing from IRS.gov. The website address for both forms is www.irs.gov/polorgs.
- If you want to determine if charitable contributions are deductible, use Tax Exempt Organization Search, www.irs.gov/teos.

Note. Exempt organizations must make their exempt applications available for public inspection. You can visit the organization to inspect the material instead of requesting it from the IRS. The organization may be able to mail the copies to you.

To see an organization's current activities or financial data, you can use www.guidestar.org.

An organization, or its officers, may request a copy of the organization's own application on Form 4506-B. However, they will only receive the copy that is "Open for Public Inspection." The publicly available copy will not include, for example, information that may identify a contributor and documents that were filed with the application, but are not open to public inspection.

How Much Will It Cost?

You may inspect an exemption application or letter at an IRS office free of charge.

If you want a photocopy of an exemption application or letter, see the chart below.

Note. The IRS will send you a bill for the photocopy cost. If your cost is over $250, we will ask for payment in advance.

IF you are . . .	THEN the charge for paper copies is . . .
A commercial user,	$.20 per page.
An educational institution, media, non-commercial scientific institution, or all other requesters,	First 100 pages free, $.20 per page thereafter.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need the information to gain access to the exempt organization IRS application or letter you requested in our files and properly respond to your request.

The authority to ask for the information requested on this form is Internal Revenue Code Section 6104 and its regulations. You are not required to provide the information requested on this form. However, if you do not furnish the information, we may not be able to fulfil your request. Providing willfully false or fraudulent information may subject you to criminal penalties. Routine uses include disclosing the information to the Department of Justice for civil or criminal litigation. We may also disclose this information to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws and to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Section 6103. The time needed to complete and file Form 4506-B will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

- Recordkeeping 6 min.
- Learning about the law or the form 10 min.
- Preparing the form 21 min.
- Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS 20 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making Form 4506-B simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can send us comments by going to www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/comment-on-tax-forms-and-publications. You can also send your comments to:

Internal Revenue Service
 Tax Forms and Publications Division
