N-600: APPLICATION OVERVIEW

Heading	Current Sub-Heading	Revised Sub-Heading	Body Text	Revised	CTA
Application for Certificate of Citizenship			The Application for Certificate of Citizenship (N-600) is used to obtain a Certificate of Citizenship which serves as evidence of your or your child's U.S. citizenship. You may file this application if you were born abroad and are claiming U.S. citizenship at birth through your parents. You may also file this application to obtain evidence of citizenship if you automatically became a U.S. citizen by operation of law after your birth but before you turned 18 years of age. A parent or guardian may also file this application on behalf of a minor child. Please note that USCIS does not issue Certificates of Citizenship in cases where the person became a U.S. citizen based on birth in the United States. USCIS only issues Certificates of Citizenship to those individuals who were born abroad but are U.S. citizens at birth through their parents, or who became citizens after birth but before the age of 18.	Use this form to request a Certificate of Citizenship for yourself or your child. A Certificate of Citizenship serves as evidence that you or your child automatically acquired citizenship at birth or after birth. (delete) If you are under 18 years of age, are the child of a U.S. citizen parent, you regularly reside outside the United States, and you did not acquire U.S. citizenship at birth under INA sections 303 or 309, your U.S. citizen parent, U.S. citizen grandparent, or U.S. citizen legal guardian may need to file Form N-600K, Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate Under Section 322, instead of Form N-600. Please review the instructions for Form N-600K to determine whether you should file that form instead of Form N-600. If you are over 18 years of age, do not file Form N-600K.	Learn more about ca applying for a Certificate of Citizenship/a
Before you start your application	Eligibility		You should file this application if: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> You are requesting a Certificate of Citizenship because you were born outside the United States to a U.S. citizen parent; or You are requesting a Certificate of Citizenship because you automatically became a citizen of the United States after birth, but before you turned 18 years of age. (A parent or legal guardian can also file Form N-600 on behalf of a minor child.) If you are claiming U.S. citizenship after birth, but before you reached 18 years of age, the law in effect when the last qualifying condition was met is the law that applies to you. Generally, the conditions are listed below. (line break) These conditions must be met before you turn 18 years of age: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Your parent must be a U.S. citizen You must be the biological child of that U.S. citizen parent You must be lawfully admitted to the United States for lawful permanent residence; and You must be living in the United States in the legal and physical custody of your U.S. citizen parent. Members of the U.S. Armed Forces currently cannot file this request online. If you are a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, you will need to submit the paper version of this form.	You should file this application if: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> You are requesting a Certificate of Citizenship because you were born outside the United States to a U.S. citizen parent; or You are requesting a Certificate of Citizenship because you automatically became a citizen of the United States after birth, but before you turned 18 years of age. (A parent or legal guardian can also file Form N-600 on behalf of a minor child.) To file this application, you must be the child of a U.S. citizen parent. USCIS recognizes the following parent-child relationships for citizenship purposes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> biological child of a U.S. citizen parent. (Your U.S. citizen parent must also be your legal parent. If the U.S. citizen parent is your biological father, you will generally have to establish that you were born in wedlock or legitimated. In some cases, you may be able to provide a court order establishing paternity or evidence that your father acknowledged paternity in writing under oath instead of legitimation.) adopted child of a U.S. citizen parent. the child of a non-genetic gestational U.S. citizen parent (person who carried and gave birth to the child) who is also your legal parent. the child of a U.S. citizen parent who was married to your genetic or gestational parent at the time of your birth (even if no genetic or gestational relationship exists with the U.S. citizen parent) and both of your parents are also your legal parents. Please note that stepchildren CANNOT acquire U.S. citizenship unless adopted. If you are claiming U.S. citizenship after birth, but before you reached 18 years of age, the law that applies to you is the law in effect when the last qualifying condition was met. Generally, the conditions are listed below. These conditions must be met before you turn 18 years of age: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Your parent must be a U.S. citizen You must be the biological or adopted child of that U.S. citizen parent You must be lawfully admitted to the United States for lawful permanent residence; and You must be living in the United States in the legal and physical custody of your U.S. citizen parent. An adopted child may also acquire U.S. citizenship through their adoptive U.S. citizen parent depending on the law being applied. Currently, an adopted child can acquire U.S. citizenship through their U.S. citizen parent.
		Law in Effect at the Time of Your Birth or While Under Age 18		To determine if you were born a U.S. citizen, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) must look at the law that was in effect at the time of your birth. To determine if you acquired citizenship after birth, USCIS generally must look at the law in effect before you turned 18 years of age. The law currently in effect, the Child Citizenship Act (CCA), applies only to those children born on or after February 27, 2001, or those who were under 18 years of age as of that date.
	Fee		Fee: $1170 The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. There is no filing fee if you are a member or veteran of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces filing on your own behalf. Children of members or veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces are required to pay the filing fee.	Fee: $1170 (delete) If you are a member or veteran of any branch of the U.S. Armed Forces filing on your own behalf, you must file the paper N-600. (USCIS cannot process no-fee N-600s online at this time.) If you are a member or veteran filing for your child, you are required to pay the fee and can file online. Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.	Learn more about ca filing a fee waiver/a.
	Documents you may need		The following is a list of documents everyone filing this form must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2x2 passport photograph Birth certificate U.S. citizen parent's proof of citizenship We will automatically determine which additional documents you need to provide as you fill out your application. After you submit your application	Track your case online	Biometric Services Appointment	After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.	USCIS may require that you (the applicant/child) appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment, or, if you are currently outside the United States, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment.
	Respond to requests for information		If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.
	Attend your interview		Not all applicants for a Certificate of Citizenship are required to appear for an in-person interview. We will determine, based on the evidence submitted in support of your application, whether you are required to appear in person for an interview.
	Take the Oath of Allegiance		If we approve your application, and you are over 14 years of age, you will be scheduled to appear at a USCIS office to take the Oath of Allegiance. If you are under 14 years of age, you may not be required to take the Oath of Allegiance.
Completing your form online	Filing online		Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.
	Provide as many responses as you can	Completely fill out this application	You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form. If you do not finish your form in one session, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.	Once USCIS accepts your application, we will check it for completeness. If you do not completely fill out this application, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and USCIS may reject or deny your application.
	We will automatically save your responses		We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. Your responses will be saved for 30 days. You can sign in to your account at anytime to continue where you left off.
