Burden: Provide the Annual burden hours: Multiply the Number of responses and the participation time and divide by 60.

FEDERAL COST: Provide an estimate of the annual cost to the Federal government.

If you are conducting a focus group, survey, or plan to employ statistical methods, please provide answers to the following questions:

The selection of your targeted respondents. Please provide a description of how you plan to identify your potential group of respondents and how you will select them. If the answer is yes, to the first question, you may provide the sampling plan in an attachment.

Administration of the Instrument: Identify how the information will be collected. More than one box may be checked. Indicate whether there will be interviewers (e.g. for surveys) or facilitators (e.g., for focus groups) used. Enter the date span “from” and “to” that this survey will be administered.

Submit all instruments, instructions, and scripts with the request.

An American Symbol Forged from the Progressive Era: The National Archives National Historic Landmark Study

Please join the National Park Service and the National Archives History Office to learn how the National Archives became an architectural symbol of the core values of American democracy, how it was forged over many decades from the values and methods of Progressive-Era government reformers, and how architect John Russell Pope and his contemporaries created an exceptional example of American Classical art and architecture ideally suited to reflect the mission and meaning of the institution.

Led by historian Dr. Steven Bedford, the presentation will focus on the National Archives Building's national significance and the recently completed National Historic Landmark (NHL) study. Dr. Bedford is author of John Russell Pope, Architect of Empire and director of historic preservation for WSP USA. National Park Service historian and NHL Program Coordinator, Kathryn Smith will introduce the project and the NHL program. The illustrated presentation will be followed by a question and answer session.

Join us on Thursday, April 29, 2021 at Noon (ET) for an illuminating discussion of the National Archives' exceptional place in United States History. Registration is required and will be limited to 250 participants. Click here to register. [This will link to a form where we ask their name, affiliation, and email address]

The form should say: To register for An American Symbol Forged from the Progressive Era: The National Archives National Historic Landmark Study, a virtual program to be held at noon (ET) on Thursday, April 29, 2021, please provide the following information:
