Subject: Reminder: 2020 College Credit Card Agreement Collection by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

Importance: High

Good morning,

Thank you for your participation in last year's college credit card agreement information collection. If you are new to this reporting, you can also find the Bureau's previous reports to Congress here: <http://www.consumerfinance.gov/credit-cards/college-agreements/>.

The annual submission of college credit card agreements and accompanying data is due by Wednesday, March 31, 2021. This collection has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget, and bears OMB approval number 3170-0052. While the substantive terms of the collection remain unchanged, the Bureau now allows the attached Excel template to be completed as an alternative to the .txt file. Several issuers reported that the .txt file requirement generated confusion, so our hope is that this option will reduce burden for you. Please do not make adjustments to the Excel form.

Please continue to use the field definitions found in the attached Federal Reserve guidance (relevant definitions begin on page 21).

Your submission must include: (1) a completed metadata file, and (2) a PDF of each agreement in effect at any point in 2020.

Please send your submission by the deadline to CollegeCardAgreements@cfpb.gov.

If you need to send your submission via physical mail, or if you have any questions, please contact us at CollegeCardAgreements@cfpb.gov.
