Questionnaire for Non-Sensitive Positions  Follow instructions completely or your form will be unable to be processed. If you have any questions, contact the office that provided you the form. All questions on this form must be answered completely and truthfully in order that the Government may make the determinations described below on a complete record. Penalties for inaccurate or false statements are discussed below. If you are a current civilian employee of the federal government: failure to answer any questions completely and truthfully could result in an adverse personnel action against you, including loss of employment; with respect to Sections 18 and 21, however, neither your truthful responses nor information derived from those responses will be used as evidence against you in a subsequent criminal proceeding.
Purpose of this Form                  This form will be used by the United States (U.S.) Government in conducting background investigations and reinvestigations of persons under consideration for, or retention of, non-sensitive positions as defined in 5 CFR 731. This form may also be used by agencies in determining whether a subject should be issued a Federal credential for access to federally controlled facilities and information systems. For applicants, this form is to be used only after a conditional offer of employment has been made, unless OPM has provided for an exception. This form is not to be used for National Security sensitive positions. Providing this information is voluntary. If you do not provide each item of requested information, however, we will not be able to complete your investigation, which will adversely affect your eligibility for a position or your ability to obtain or retain Federal or contract employment, or logical or physical access. It is imperative that the information provided be true and accurate, to the best of your knowledge. Any information that you provide is evaluated on the basis of its currency, seriousness, relevance to the position and duties, and consistency with all other information about you. Withholding, misrepresenting, or falsifying information may affect your eligibility for positions, physical and /or logical access required to perform duties, or your ability to obtain or retain Federal or contract employment. In addition, withholding, misrepresenting, or falsifying information may affect your eligibility for physical and logical access to federally controlled facilities or information systems. Withholding, misrepresenting, or falsifying information may also negatively affect your employment prospects and job status, and the potential consequences include, but are not limited to, removal, debarment from Federal service, or prosecution. This form may become a permanent document that may be used as the basis for future investigations, determinations of suitability or fitness for Federal employment, fitness for contract employment, or eligibility for physical and logical access to federally controlled facilities or information systems. Your responses to this form may be compared with your responses to previous questionnaires. The investigation conducted on the basis of information provided on this form may be selected for studies and analyses in support of evaluating and improving the effectiveness and efficiency of the investigative and adjudicative methodologies. All study results released to the general public will delete personal identifiers such as name, Social Security Number, and date and place of birth.
Authority to Request this Information                  Depending upon the purpose of your investigation, the U.S. Government is authorized to ask for this information under Executive Orders 13764, 13741, 10577, 13467, and 13488; sections 3301, 3302, 7301, and 9101 of title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.); parts 2, 5, 731, and 736 of title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). Your Social Security Number (SSN) is needed to identify records unique to you. Although disclosure of your SSN is not mandatory, failure to disclose your SSN may prevent or delay the processing of your background investigation. The authority for soliciting and verifying your SSN is Executive Order 9397, as amended by EO 13478.
The Investigative Process                  Background investigations for non-sensitive positions are conducted to gather information to determine whether you are reliable, trustworthy, of good conduct and character, and will not present an unacceptable risk. The information that you provide on this form and your Declaration for Federal Employment (OF 306) may be confirmed during the investigation. The investigation may extend beyond the time covered by this form, when necessary to resolve issues. Your current employer may be contacted as part of the investigation, although you may have previously indicated on applications or other forms that you do not want your current employer to be contacted. If you have a security freeze on your consumer or credit report file and a credit report is required by the agency requesting your investigation, then we may not be able to complete your investigation, which can adversely affect your eligibility for positions, physical and /or logical access required to perform duties, or your ability to obtain Federal or contract employment. To avoid such delays, you must request that the consumer reporting agencies lift the freeze in these instances. In addition to the questions on this form, inquiry also is made about your adherence to security requirements, your honesty and integrity, falsification, misrepresentation, and any other behavior, activities, or associations that tend to demonstrate a person is not reliable or trustworthy, or poses an unacceptable risk to the life, safety, or health of employees, contractors, vendors or visitors to a Federal facility; the Government's physical assets or information systems; personal property; records, or, the privacy of the individuals whose data the Government holds in its systems. After an eligibility determination is made, you may also be subject to reinvestigations to ensure your continuing suitability for employment.
The information you provide on this form may be confirmed during the investigation, and may be used for identification purposes throughout the investigation process.
Your Personal Interview                  Some investigations may include an interview with you as needed as part of the investigative process. The investigator may ask you to explain your answers to any question on this form. This provides you the opportunity to update, clarify, and explain information on your form more completely, which often assists in completing your investigation. If contacted, it is imperative that the interview be conducted as soon as possible after contact is made by the investigator. Postponements will delay the processing of your investigation, and declining to be interviewed may result in your investigation being delayed or canceled. For the interview, you will be required to provide photo identification, such as a valid state driver's license. You may be required to provide other documents to verify your identity, as instructed by your investigator. These documents may include certification of any legal name change, Social Security card, passport, and/or your birth certificate.
