Title	Revised	OMB Approved Section	Revised	OMB Approved Version	Revised
Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative (G-28)	G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative			The Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative is for attorneys and accredited representatives to provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, requester, beneficiary or derivative, or respondent in immigration matters. An attorney or accredited representative must complete and submit a new G-28 form for each client case. The G-28 can be started along with a client's new case or it can be added to a client's already-submitted case. USCIS will only recognize a completed G-28 once the client has reviewed and signed the form.	Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative is for attorneys and accredited representatives to provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, requester, beneficiary or derivative, or respondent in immigration matters. An attorney or accredited representative must complete and submit a new Form G-28 form for each client case. Form G-28 can be started along with a client's new case or it can be added to a client's already-submitted case. USCIS will only recognize a completed Form G-28 once the client has reviewed and signed the form. Each attorney or accredited representative appearing in a case must submit their own Form G-28 and USCIS only recognizes one Form G-28 at a time.
Before you start the G-28	Before you start the form			Who should complete this form You should only complete this form if you are an attorney or accredited representatives as defined in 8 CFR 1.2 and 1292. Law students and law graduates If you are a law student or law graduate who is working under the direct supervision of an attorney or accredited representative, you will need to provide your name and signature on the form. Foreign attorneys If you are an attorney not licensed to practice law in the United States, you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to file the Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney In Matters Outside the United States (G-28I). Other representatives If you are seeking to appear as a reputable individual as defined in 8 CFR 292.1(a)(3), you should not use this form. Instead, you will need to seek permission from DHS to appear with your client.
After you complete the G-28	After you complete the form			Your client adds you as his or her representative After you provide your representative information and signature, we will give you a one-time access code to give to your client. Your client will need to sign in to his or her USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially link to your G-28. Your client will also need to review the information you provided in the G-28 and provide his or her signature before you can continue with filing out an online form for him or her. You complete your client's online form Once your online client links to and signs your G-28, a link will appear on your account homepage that takes you to the online form you want to complete on behalf of your client. Your client reviews and signs After you are finished filling out your client's online form, her or she will need to sign in to his or her account to review the information you provided in the online form and then provide his or her signature.	Your client adds you as their representative After you complete Form G-28 and provide your signature, we will give you a one-time passcode to give to your client. Your client will need to sign in to their USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially add you as a representative. (delete) Your client reviews and signs Once your client adds you as a representative, they will need to review the information provided in Form G-28. If all the information is correct, your client will accept the form and then provide their signature. If the information is incorrect, your client will decline the form and we will send it back to you to make updates. Once your client accepts Form G-28, they will then review the benefit form. If all the information is correct, your client will provide their signature. If any information is incorrect, your client may decline and send back the benefit form for you to make any updates If you are adding a Form G-28 to your client's already-submitted case, the case status will be updated referencing the form.

Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative (G-28)	G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative				Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative is for attorneys and accredited representatives to provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, requester, beneficiary or derivative, or respondent in immigration matters. An attorney or accredited representative must complete and submit a new Form G-28 form for each client case. Form G-28 can be started along with a client's new case or it can be added to a client's already-submitted case. USCIS will only recognize a completed Form G-28 once the client has reviewed and signed the form. Each attorney or accredited representative appearing in a case must submit their own Form G-28 and USCIS only recognizes one Form G-28 at a time.
			Before you start the form		Who should complete this form The G-28 is used to officially establish a relationship between you and your representative. This form should only be completed by an attorney or accredited representative (as defined in 8 CFR 1.2 and 1292) you have chosen to appear and act on your behalf in immigration matters.
			After you submit the form	You add your representative in your USCIS account After your representative completes the G-28, he or she will contact you and give you a one-time passcode. You will need to sign in to your USCIS account (or create a new one) and enter this code to officially add your representative. Your representative complete your online form (for new cases) Once you have reviewed and signed the G-28, a link will appear on your representative's account home page that takes him or her to the online form you want to be completed on your behalf.	You add your representative in your USCIS account After your representative completes Form G-28, they will contact you and give you a one-time passcode.
