PURPOSE

The Crime Control Act of 1990 – Public Law 101-647, and associated statutes require each employee of a child care center located in a Federal building or in Federal leased space to undergo a background check. This includes every child care facility operated by the Federal government, or operated under contract with the Federal government that hires (or contracts for hire) individuals with the provision to care for children under the age of eighteen (18). In accordance with the Crime Control Act of 1990, GSA 176 is used to collect pertinent information in order to determine an individual's eligibility for employment to provide child care services in facilities operated by the Federal Government.

A child care worker employee background check must be conducted on all existing and newly hired employees. The background check is 1) based on fingerprints taken by a law enforcement officer and on other identifying information, 2) conducted through the FBI's Identification Division and through the State criminal history repositories in each state in which the potential child care employee has been a resident or has listed in an employment application, and 3) initiated through the personnel program of the applicable employing agency.
