Your Answers Are Confidential

The U.S. Census Bureau is required by law to protect this information (Title 13, U.S. Code, Section 9). The Census Bureau is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify anyone. We are conducting the 2020 Census of American Samoa under the authority of Title 13, U.S. Code, Sections 141, 193, 221 and 223. By law, the Census Bureau can only use responses to produce statistics. Per the Federal Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, data are protected from cybersecurity risks through screening of the systems that transmit data.

Title 13 of the U.S. Code protects the confidentiality of all this information. Violating the confidentiality of a respondent is a federal crime with serious penalties, including a federal prison sentence of up to five years, a fine of up to $250,000, or both. Only authorized individuals have access to the stored data, and the information provided to the Census Bureau may only be used by a restricted number of authorized individuals who are sworn for life to protect the confidentiality of individual responses.

For more information about how we protect this information, please visit our Web site at census.gov and click on "Data Protection and Privacy Policy" at the bottom of the home page. This page also includes information about the collection, storage, and use of these records. Click on "System of Records Notices (SORN)" and look for Privacy Act System of Records Notice COMMERCE/CENSUS-5, Decennial Census Program.

Thank you for your cooperation. The Census Bureau appreciates your help.

You are required by law to respond to the 2020 Census of American Samoa (Title 13, U.S. Code, Sections 141 and 193). The Census Bureau estimates that completing the questionnaire will take 25 minutes on average. This collection of information has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The eight-digit OMB approval number that appears at the bottom left of this notice confirms this approval. If this number were not displayed, we could not conduct the census.

Sus respuestas son confidenciales

La Oficina del Censo de los EE. UU. está obligada por ley a proteger esta información (Título 13, Código de los EE. UU., Sección 9). A la Oficina del Censo no se le permite divulgar sus respuestas de manera que nadie pudiera ser identificado. Estamos realizando el Censo del 2020 de las Islas Vírgenes de los EE. UU. en conformidad con las Secciones 141, 193, 221 y 223 del Título 13 del Código de los EE. UU. Por ley, la Oficina del Censo solo puede usar respuestas para producir estadísticas. Según la Ley Federal para el Fortalecimiento de la Seguridad Informática de 2015, los datos están protegidos de los riesgos de la seguridad en la internet mediante controles en los sistemas que transmiten los datos.

El Título 13 del Código de los EE. UU. protege la confidencialidad de toda la información. Violar la confidencialidad de una persona encuestada es un delito federal con serias sanciones, incluyendo una condena de hasta cinco años en una prisión federal, una multa de hasta $250,000, o ambas. Solo personas autorizadas tienen acceso a los datos recopilados, y la información que se proporcione a la Oficina del Censo puede ser usada solamente por un número limitado de personas autorizadas que han jurado de por vida proteger la confidencialidad de las respuestas individuales. Sus respuestas no pueden ser usadas en su contra por ninguna agencia o tribunal del gobierno.

Para obtener más información sobre cómo protegemos esta información, visite nuestro sitio web census.gov y haga clic en "Data Protection and Privacy Policy" en la parte inferior de la página principal. La página sobre protección de datos y normas de privacidad también incluye información sobre la recopilación, almacenamiento y uso de esos registros.
