

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

BORROWER DEFENSE TO REPAYMENT APPLICATION

OMB Number: 1845-0163
Form Approved
Expiration Date: 11/30/2023

INSTRUCTIONS

Under the Borrower Defense to Repayment provision of law, certain conduct by a school you attended might make you eligible to receive a discharge of some or all of your federal student loans. The type of conduct that might make you eligible for student loan relief and the process by which the Department of Education will review your claim may differ based upon when you took out your loan. In general, loans taken out or consolidated prior to June 30, 2017 will be evaluated under one set of regulations, while those taken or consolidated between July 1, 2017 and June 30, 2020 will be evaluated under a second set of regulations, and those taken or consolidated after July 1, 2020 will be evaluated under a third set of regulations. For that reason, in completing this application you may be asked different questions about different loans or may receive a different determination regarding your eligibility for loans taken or consolidated at different points in time.

The most common types of conduct that might make a borrower eligible for loan relief through borrower defense to repayment discharge are misrepresentations of the truth made by the school or its representatives during their efforts to recruit you to enroll at the school or to continue your enrollment at the school. These misrepresentations typically take the form of untruthful representations of the school's selectivity in admitting students, its rankings as compared to other schools, the job placement and earnings outcomes of its prior graduates, or the likelihood that its credits will be accepted by another school or that it will accept credits from other schools.

There are other kinds of experiences that may leave a student dissatisfied with their educational choices; however, these experiences do not make a borrower eligible for federal student loan relief under the borrower defense to repayment provision. Examples of such experiences that would likely not make a borrower eligible for relief include, but are not limited to:

- Dissatisfaction with the school's program or classes, the grades a student received, or the perceived teaching skills of otherwise qualified instructors;
- Disappointment with the school's housing or facilities, availability of on-campus housing, parking availability, the performance of a school's athletic teams, the availability of or access to student activities on campus, or campus eating facilities, food quality or meal plans;
- A student's inability to live in their dormitory of choice, enroll in the program of their choice *unless otherwise guaranteed admission to the program), or the departure of a distinguished faculty member under whom the student wished to study;
- Informal comments made by other students who are or in the past were enrolled at the school, but who are not spokespeople for the school and are not participating in school-sponsored student recruitment activities;
- General findings of a school's non-compliance with certain U.S. Department of Education's rules for administering Federal Aid;
- Violations of local, state, or federal laws unrelated to the making of a Federal student loan, such as those that govern truth in advertising or misrepresentation;
- Personal injury, loss of property, sexual harassment or other violations of law or civil rights; or
- Academic disputes and disciplinary matters.

It is also important to understand that to be eligible for full or partial federal student loan relief through borrower defense to repayment, you must also have suffered monetary harm. The act of taking a loan or holding student debt is not, by itself, considered to be monetary harm. Instead, the Department compares earnings of prior graduates of your program to graduates of other similar programs and makes a determination of monetary harm, if the earnings of graduates of your program are below the range of normal variation of earnings among graduates of other similar programs. The data used to calculate earnings for purposes of determining monetary harm are based on data provided by a Federal agency, such as the Internal Revenue Service or in some instances, the Social Security Administration.

If you believe you are eligible for borrower defense to repayment relief, please complete this application.

When answering questions on this application, please be as detailed as possible. While you are not required to submit documentation with your application to be considered for discharge, we recommend that you do so.

SECTION 5: FINANCIAL HARM

Note: This section only applies to borrowers who receive a Direct Loan, including a Direct Consolidation Loan, on or after July 1, 2020.

You are eligible to receive full or partial loan discharge as a result of an eligible borrower defense claim only if you have suffered financial harm as a result of your school's misrepresentation. We can only discharge federal student loans, and the amount of a discharge that you may be eligible to receive cannot be more than what you borrowed. For example, we cannot consider private student loans you may have borrowed. Financial harm does not include:

- Nonmonetary loss, such as personal injury, inconvenience, aggravation, emotional distress, pain and suffering, punitive damages, or opportunity costs.
- The act of taking out a federal student loan or merely having federal student loan debt.
- Your voluntary decision to pursue less than full-time work.
- Your decision to not work.
- Your decision to voluntarily change occupations or pursue a different line of work.
- Payments you made other than through the use of federal student loans.

What is the total monetary loss associated with your federal student loans that you have incurred due to your school's alleged misrepresentation?

Please note that you are not required to complete this field, and that the Department will not limit the amount you are owed to the amount you reported in this field. The information you provide helps us review financial harm, but the Department also considers published earnings information from prior graduates to determine whether or not you were financially harmed, and how much harm you incurred. If you complete this field, you may, but are not required, to include the amount of your federal student loans (the Department has this information already).

Please explain how you determined that amount:

For which jobs did the program say it would prepare you, if any?

When and how did the school provide you with this information?

Have you actively pursued employment in the field for which your education was intended to prepare you?

Yes No

If yes, list jobs in your field for which you applied, and the date on which you applied for each, as well as any reason you may have been given for not being selected for that or those jobs. You may limit the list to jobs for which you have applied during the most recent year.

Job Title	Date Applied	Reason for Not Being Selected for the Position

If yes, please include documents that demonstrate this pursuit. These may include:

- Job application confirmation emails
- Correspondence with potential employers
- Registration at job fairs
- Enrolling with a job recruiter
- Attendance at a resume workshop

Have you failed to meet other requirements or qualifications for employment in your field of study for reasons unrelated to your school's misrepresentation such as, but not limited to, your ability to pass a drug test, satisfy driving record requirements, or meet health qualifications?

Yes No

If yes, please explain:

SECTION 6: FORBEARANCE AND STOPPED COLLECTIONS

If you are not currently in default on any Federal student loan, you may request forbearance status on the Federal student loans that are the subject of this application while your application is under review. "Forbearance" means that you do not have to make loan payments, and your loans will not go into default, while your application for a borrower defense discharge is pending with the U.S. Department of Education. Your servicer will notify you when your loans have been placed into forbearance status.

If your Federal student loans are in default, you may request stopped collections status on the Federal student loans that are the subject of this application while your application is under review. "Stopped collections status" means that the Federal government or debt collection companies will not attempt to collect on the defaulted, including efforts to withhold money from your wages or Federal income tax refunds, while your borrower defense application is pending with the U.S. Department of Education.

If you have more questions about forbearance or stopped collections, visit StudentAid.gov/borrower-defense or contact your servicer. If you do not know who your servicer is, please visit StudentAid.gov/aid-summary or call 1-800-4-FED-AID.

Interest will continue to accumulate on all Federal student loans regardless of their status, including subsidized loans. If your application for borrower defense is denied or partially approved, the total amount you owe on those loans may be higher, and outstanding interest may capitalize (meaning that they will be added to your principal balance). If you wish to make interest payments while your loans are in a forbearance or stopped collections status, please contact your servicer.

You do not have to place your loans in forbearance or stopped collections to apply for borrower defense relief. Instead, you may opt to continue making payments on your loans, especially if you are in a repayment program like loan rehabilitation to remove your loans from default. If you received loans for attendance at a school for which you are not filing a claim, you still must repay those loans.

You can learn more about repayment options at StudentAid.gov/manage-loans.

Are you in default on any Federal student loans?

If the answer is no, do you wish to request forbearance on the loan(s) for which you have filed a borrow defense application?

Yes, to be placed in forbearance. No.

If your answer is yes, do you wish to request stopped collections status?

Yes No.

If you do not select one of the options above and you are not in default on any Federal student loan, the U.S. Department of Education will automatically place the Federal student loan(s) into forbearance that is the subject of your borrower defense application pending the Department's review of the application.

If you do not select one of the options set forth above and you are in default, the Department will place into stopped collections status the Federal student loan(s) that is the subject of your borrower defense application pending the Department's review of the application.

The Department will also make these requests to commercial holders of Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) program loans not held by the Department.

SECTION 7. CERTIFICATION

By signing this attestation I certify that:

All of the information that I provided is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. Upon request, I agree to provide to the U.S. Department of Education additional information that is reasonably available to me that will verify the accuracy of my completed attestation.

I also agree to provide, upon request, testimony, a sworn statement, or other documentation reasonably available to me that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the U.S. Department of Education or its designee that I meet the qualifications for borrower defense.

I certify that I received proceeds of a federal loan, in whole or in part, to attend the school/campus identified in Section 2 above.

I certify that I have not received a refund, tuition recovery, settlement, or other financial restitute to repay the loans that are the subject of this borrower defense to repayment claim.

I certify that I have accurately reported other efforts I have made to receive loan relief, including by filing suit against the school, participating in a class action suit, entering into arbitration, applying to a tuition recovery fund, or similar.

I understand that if my application is approved and some or all of my loans are forgiven, I am assigning to the U.S. Department of Education any legal claim I have against the school for those forgiven loans. By assigning my claims, I am transferring my interest in any claim that I could make against the school relating to the forgiven loans (including the ability to file a lawsuit over those forgiven loans and any money ultimately recovered in compensation for those forgiven loans in court or other legal proceedings) to the U.S. Department of Education. I am not assigning any claims I may have against the school for any other form of relief --including injunctive relief or damages related to private loans, tuition paid out-of-pocket, unforgiven loans, or other financial losses.

I understand that the U.S. Department of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with other federal or state agencies or other entities. I authorize the U.S. Department of Education, along with its agents and contractors, to contact me regarding this request at the phone number above using automated dialing equipment or artificial or prerecorded voice or text messages.

I understand that any rights and obligations with regard to borrower defense to repayment are subject to the provisions currently in effect under Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or misrepresentation on this form or on any accompanying document is subject to penalties that may include fines, imprisonment, or both, under the U.S. Criminal Code and 20 U.S.C. 1097. I sign this application under penalty of perjury.

I understand that in the event that I receive a 100 percent discharge of my loan balance for which the defense to repayment application has been submitted, the school may, if not prohibited by other applicable law, refuse to verify or to provide an official transcript that verifies my completion of credits or a credential associated with the discharged loan.

I understand that, should the Department receive any documentation from the school, in response to the Department's request for records and evidence, the Department will provide me with those documents as well as any evidence otherwise in the possession of the Department. If my application is based on a loan that I received on or after July 1, 2020, then I further understand that my application and supporting evidence will be sent to my school, and I will have a time-limited opportunity to review and respond to any evidence that my school submits in response to my application.

I agree to allow the school that is the subject to this defense to repayment application to provide the Department with items from my student educational record relevant to this defense to repayment application.
