INTRODUCTION

This attachment contains the details of sets of related data entries known as data groups (DG) that are used for the Civil Rights Data Collection (CRDC) collected from state educational agencies (SEA), local educational agencies (LEA), and schools.

To fully understand the data groups presented in this attachment, the reader should use Attachments A-1 and A-3 as references. Attachment A-1 explains how to read the table of information on each data group. Attachment A-3 contains the definitions and permitted values of the categories in the category sets.

In this attachment, data groups are listed in alphabetical order by data group name. For readability, the tables that describe data groups are not divided between pages, if possible. This results in some pages having significant blank space.

DATA GROUPS THAT ARE PART OF THE CRDC

Data groups that will be considered part of the CRDC fall into the following sets.

- Set A: Data groups submitted by LEAs through the CRDC, and also collected from SEAs through the ED*Facts* Submission System (ESS) to ensure internal consistency of the CRDC.
- Set B: Data groups submitted by LEAs and schools for the CRDC.
- Set C: Data groups submitted by SEAs through ESS and merged into the CRDC dataset to provide more complete and robust data for civil rights purposes, with no additional burden on SEAs or LEAs.

Set A Data Groups—Collected through both CRDC and ESS

The data groups, as collected through the CRDC, are explained in this attachment.

The data groups, as collected through the ESS, are explained in Attachments A and B of the ED*Facts* school years 2019–20, 2020–21, and 2021–22 information collection package titled, “Annual Mandatory Collection of Elementary and Secondary Education Data through ED*Facts*.” The ED*Facts* information collection package (OMB control number: 1850-0925 v.4) is available at <https://www.regulations.gov/docket?D=ED-2018-ICCD-0117>.

Comment	Report only for schools with any grade 9 through 12 and/or ungraded with high school age students. Data science courses focus on learning and gathering meaning from datasets, using methods from mathematics, statistics, computing, and other fields. Students in data science courses learn data-related skills, such as data cleaning, merging, analysis, modelling, and visualization; exposure to a wide variety of data types; and may study societal, ethical, and civic implications of data usage and analysis. Many data science courses also include coverage of the “data cycle,” akin to the scientific method: 1) formulating data-related questions; 2) gathering and collecting data; 3) exploring the data; 4) analyzing the data; and 5) interpreting and communicating the results, which then leads to additional inquiry.

Comment	Report only for schools with any grade 9 through 12 and/or ungraded with high school age students, and that provide data science courses. Data science courses focus on learning and gathering meaning from datasets, using methods from mathematics, statistics, computing, and other fields. Students in data science courses learn data-related skills, such as data cleaning, merging, analysis, modelling, and visualization; exposure to a wide variety of data types; and may study societal, ethical, and civic implications of data usage and analysis. Many data science courses also include coverage of the “data cycle,” akin to the scientific method: 1) formulating data-related questions; 2) gathering and collecting data; 3) exploring the data; 4) analyzing the data; and 5) interpreting and communicating the results, which then leads to additional inquiry.

The Programme is typically taught over two years. IB Diploma Programme students study six courses at higher level or standard level. Students must choose one subject from each of groups 1 to 5, thus ensuring breadth of experience in languages, social studies, the experimental sciences and mathematics. The sixth subject may be an arts subject chosen from group 6, or the student may choose another subject from groups 1 to 5. Additionally, IB Diploma Programme students must meet three core requirements: the extended essay, the theory of knowledge course, and a creativity/action/service experience.

Justice facilities include short-term (90 calendar days or less) and long-term (more than 90 calendar days) facilities, such as correctional facilities, detention centers, jails, and prisons. These facilities may confine juveniles (individuals typically under 18 years of age), adults (individuals typically 18 years of age and older), or both. Some states and jurisdictions include individuals younger than age 18 as adults due to statute/legislation and/or justice procedures. For the purposes of the CRDC, only individuals up to 21 years of age who are confined in justice facilities are of interest. Educational program – An educational program for children and youth (not beyond grade 12) served at a justice facility that consists of credit-granting courses and classroom instruction in at minimum, basic school subjects, such as reading, English language arts, and mathematics. Classroom instruction in vocationally-oriented subjects may also be considered part of the program. Neither the manufacture of goods within the facility nor activities related to facility maintenance are considered classroom instruction. Credit-granting refers to any course that results in a letter grade or a pass/fail designation and is required of a student to move to the next grade level or complete a program of study and receive a high school diploma. A regular educational program usually begins in the late summer or early fall and ends in late spring or early summer. Full-time equivalent (FTE) – FTE is a unit that indicates the workload of an employed person in a way that makes workloads comparable across various contexts. FTE is used to measure a worker’s service in a place (e.g., school). FTE is the number of total hours the person is expected to work divided by the maximum number of compensable hours in a full-time schedule. An FTE of 1.00 means that the person is equivalent to a full-time worker, while an FTE of 0.50 signals that the worker is only half-time.

For the purposes of reporting teacher certification, refer to the following teachers definition and guide to determine which teachers should be included and excluded:

Teachers provide instruction, learning experiences, and care to students during a particular time period or in a given discipline.

Teachers to include:

- Regular Classroom Teachers
  - Teach Chemistry, English, mathematics, physical education, history, etc.
- Special Education Teachers
  - Teach special education classes to students with disabilities.
- General Elementary Teachers
  - Teach self-contained classes in any of grades Preschool–8 (i.e., teach the same class of students all or most of the day).
  - Team-teach (i.e., two or more teachers collaborate to teach multiple subjects to the same class of students).
  - Include preschool teachers and kindergarten teachers.
- Vocational/Technical Education Teachers
  - Teach typing, business, agriculture, life skills, home economics as well as any other vocational or technical classes.
- Teaching principals, teaching school counselors, teaching librarians, teaching school nurses, or other teaching administrators
  - Include any staff members who teach at least one regularly scheduled class per week (e.g., a librarian teaches a regularly scheduled class in mathematics once a week).
- Teachers of Ungraded Students
