Follow these steps to request a Board Appeal

Find out about opting in if you have an older claim ▼

1 Check to be sure you can request a Board Appeal

You can request a Board Appeal up to 1 year from the date on your decision notice. (Exception: If you have a contested claim, you have only 60 days from the date on your decision notice to request a Board Appeal.)

You can request a Board Appeal for these claim decisions:

- An initial claim
- A Supplemental Claim
- A Higher-Level Review

Note: You can't request a Board Appeal if you've already requested one for this same claim.

2 Gather your information

Here's what you'll need to apply:

- Your mailing address
- The VA decision date for each issue you'd like us to review (this is the date on the decision notice you got in the mail)
- The first and last name of your accredited representative or the name of the Veteran Service Organization you're working with (enter the name you provided on Form 21-22 or Form 21-22a)

3 Start your request

We'll take you through each step of the process. It should take about 30 minutes.

Step 2 of 4: Issues for review

Your application will be saved on every change. Your application ID number is 10859.

You can submit this online form (VA Form 10182) to appeal a VA decision dated on or after February 19, 2019. The Board must receive your completed form within 1 year (365 days) from the date listed on your decision notice.

If our decision involves a contested claim, the Board must receive your completed form within 60 days from the date listed on your decision notice. A contested claim is when a favorable claim decision for one person results in denial or reduced benefits for another person.

If you have a Statement of the Case (SOC) or a Supplemental Statement of the Case (SSOC) from the old appeals system dated on or after February 19, 2019, the Board must receive your completed form in one of these time frames, whichever is later:

- Within 60 days from the date on the SSOC letter, or
- Within 1 year of the decision date by the agency of original jurisdiction

If you opt in, we'll process your claim under the review option you choose. We won't continue to process your appeal in the old system.

I understand that if I want any issues reviewed that are currently in the old appeals process, I'm opting them in to the new decision review process. (*Required)

Step 3 of 4: Board review options

Please select a Board review option: (*Required)

Request a direct review

A Veterans Law Judge will review your appeal based on evidence already submitted. You can't submit more evidence or have a hearing. The Direct review option will take about 1 year for the Board to complete.

Submit more evidence

You can submit more evidence for a Veterans Law Judge to review, but you can't have a hearing. The evidence submission option will take more than 1 year for the Board to complete.

Request a hearing

You can request a hearing with a Veterans Law Judge. You can also submit more evidence to be reviewed, either at the hearing or within 90 days after the hearing. Adding evidence is optional. The hearing request option will take more than 1 year for the Board to complete.
