

REQUEST FOR A RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION TO THE COVID-19 VACCINATION REQUIREMENT

The purpose of this form is to determine whether you may be eligible for a religious exemption to the government-wide policy that requires all Federal employees, as defined in 5 U.S.C. § 2105, to be vaccinated against COVID-19. An exemption is provided only as required by law. In certain circumstances, a Federal employee who has a religious objection to the COVID-19 vaccination requirement may be entitled under Federal law to an exemption from that requirement, in which case the employee would instead comply with alternative health and safety protocols. The Federal government is committed to respecting the important legal protections for religious liberty.

To be eligible for an exemption, you must first establish that your refusal to be vaccinated is based upon a sincere belief that is religious in nature. A refusal to be vaccinated does not qualify for an exemption if it is based upon personal preference, concerns about the possible effects of the vaccine, or political opinions.

To request a religious exemption, please fill out this form. If more space is needed, please attach documents as necessary. The agency may ask for other information as needed to determine if you are legally entitled to an exemption.

Signing this form constitutes a declaration that, to the best of your knowledge and ability, the information you provide is true and correct. Any intentional misrepresentation to the Federal Government may result in legal consequences, including termination or removal from Federal service.
