Sustained Partnership Provider Interview: Advance Email Invitation

Format: Email

Subject: Invitation to participate in the Early Head Start-Child Care Partnerships Sustainability Study Interview

Dear [FIRST NAME] [LAST NAME],

Thank you for completing the survey for the Early Head Start-Child Care Partnerships Sustainability Study.

In addition to the survey you completed, the study includes interviews with child-care providers who have sustained their partnership with their Early Head Start programs. Your child-care business, [PARTNER PROGRAM NAME], has been selected to participate in one of these interviews. During the interview, we will ask questions about your child-care business; your current partnership with [PROGRAM], factors that may have supported or created barriers for sustaining your partnership; and partnership activities. We will conduct the interview with you over the phone. We expect the interview to take 50 minutes to complete. As a token of our appreciation, we will offer a $20 gift card for participating in the interview.

Participation in the study is voluntary and your responses will be kept private and used only for research purposes. They will be combined with the responses of others and no individual names will be reported. This combined input will provide the Administration for Children and Families with important information about how partnerships are sustained.

We will follow-up in a few days by phone to discuss the details of the interview, scheduling, and address any questions you might have. If you have any questions prior to my call, please contact me at XXX-XXX-XXXX or by email at EMAIL@mathematica-mpr.com.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Sara Skidmore

Survey Director

Sustained Partnership Provider Interview: Recruitment Script

Hello, my name is [NAME] and I am calling from Mathematica. Thank you so much for completing the survey for the Early Head Start-Child Care Partnerships Sustainability Study!

As you might remember, the purpose of this study is to see how partnerships that received funding under the 2015 partnership grants are faring, and the factors that may have supported or impeded the sustainability of those partnerships.

As part of this study, we are conducting interviews with child-care providers who have sustained their partnership with the EHS programs. During the interview, we will ask questions about your child-care business; your current partnership with [PROGRAM], factors that may have supported or created barriers for sustaining your partnership; and partnership activities. This interview will be conducted over the phone and is expected to take 50 minutes to complete. As a token of our appreciation, we will offer a $20 gift card for participating in the interview.

Participation in the study is voluntary and your responses will be kept private and used only for research purposes. They will be combined with the responses of others and no individual names will be reported. This combined input will provide the Administration for Children and Families with important information about why partnerships dissolve and what might be done to better sustain them.

Do you have any questions?

[IF PARTNER AGREES TO PARTICIPATE] Thank you so much for agreeing to participate in the interview!

Next, can you please suggest some times during the next week when you will be available to complete the interview?

Again, thank you for agreeing to participate in the interview for the Sustainability Study. I will send you a follow-up email to confirm your interview date and time. Have a great rest of your day!
