Privacy Act Statement

5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3)

The information you provide will permit the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) to process your request and send you information about the Bureau, its work, and other information related to financial education, regulation, and enforcement.

The Bureau may collect personally identifiable information (PII) such as your name, email address, home phone number, mobile telephone number, and other basic contact information. Occupation and other consumer characteristics may be collected to identify and tailor the information the Bureau sends you based on your areas or topics of interest.

Information collected by the CFPB is treated in accordance with the System of Records Notice (SORN) CFPB.011 CFPB Correspondence Tracking Database. Although the Bureau does not anticipate further disclosing the information provided, it may be disclosed as indicated in the Routine Uses described in the SORN. Direct identifying information will be kept private except as required by law.

This collection of information is authorized by Pub. L. No. 111-203, Title X, Sections 1011, 1012, 1013, codified at 12 U.S.C. §§ 5491, 5492, 5493.

You are voluntarily providing this information to the Bureau and may withdraw your subscription at any time. However, if you do not provide the information, we may not be able to process your request.
