

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
For the Paperwork Reduction Act Information Collection Submission for RULE 206(4)-3

A. JUSTIFICATION

1. Necessity for the Information Collection

Rule 206(4)-3 (17 CFR 275.206(4)-3) under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, which is entitled “Cash Payments for Client Solicitations,” prohibits investment advisers from paying cash fees to solicitors for client referrals unless certain conditions are met. The rule requires that an adviser pay all solicitors’ fees pursuant to a written agreement that the adviser is required to retain.¹ When an adviser will provide only impersonal advisory services to the prospective client, the rule imposes no disclosure requirements. When the solicitor is affiliated with the adviser and the adviser will provide individualized advisory services to the prospective client, the solicitor must, at the time of the solicitation or referral, indicate to the prospective client that he is affiliated with the adviser. When the solicitor is not affiliated with the adviser and the adviser will provide individualized advisory services to the prospective client, the solicitor must, at the time of the solicitation or referral, provide the prospective client with a copy of the adviser's brochure and a disclosure document containing information specified in rule 206(4)-3.

Amendments to rule 206(4)-3, adopted in 2010 by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) in connection with rule 206(4)-5, specify that solicitation activities involving a government entity, as defined in rule 206(4)-5, are subject to the additional limitations in rule 206(4)-5.

In December 2020, the Commission adopted a single marketing rule which merged certain existing provisions of rule 206(4)-3 into amendments to rule 206(4)-1.² In light of these 2020 amendments, the Commission has rescinded rule 206(4)-3, effective November 2, 2022. Notwithstanding the repeal of rule 206(4)-3, the Office of Management and Budget (the “OMB”) has requested that the Commission submit documents in connection with the extension of rule 206(4)-3 for the period covering February 28, 2022 to November 2, 2022, the effective date of the discontinuance of rule 206(4)-3.

To the extent that the OMB has requested this collection of information, the information rule 206(4)-3 requires is necessary to inform advisory clients about the nature of the solicitor’s financial interest in the recommendation so the prospective clients may consider the solicitor’s potential bias, and to protect clients against solicitation activities being carried out in a manner inconsistent with the adviser’s fiduciary duty to clients. The likely respondents to this information collection would be each investment adviser registered with the Commission that compensates a solicitor in cash for referrals.

Rule 206(4)-3 contains “collection of information” requirements within the meaning of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.³ The title of this collection is “Rule 206(4)-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (17 CFR 275.206(4)-3)” and the Commission submitted it to the OMB for review in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 3507(d) and 5 CFR 1320.11. The OMB approved this collection under control number 3235-0242 (expiring on February 28, 2022). An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB number.

2. Purpose and Use of the Information Collection

Investors need accurate information about compensation arrangements between an investment adviser and a solicitor in order to determine whether to retain an adviser recommended by the solicitor.

3. Consideration Given to Information Technology

The Commission's use of computer technology in connection with this information collection, which has been previously approved by OMB, would not change. Investment advisers are permitted to provide the information required by rule 206(4)-3 electronically.⁴

4. Duplication

No other rule requires investment advisers to provide clients or prospective clients with the same information that is required by rule 206(4)-3.

5. Effect on Small Entities

The requirements for rule 206(4)-3 are the same for all investment advisers registered with the Commission, including small entities. It would defeat the purpose of the rule to exempt small entities from these requirements. For purposes of Commission rulemaking, an investment adviser is a small business if it has assets under management of less than $25 million and meets certain other requirements. Advisers with assets under management of less than $25 million are eligible to register with the Commission only if they advise a registered investment company, are not regulated or required to be regulated as an investment adviser in the state in which they maintain their principal office and place of business, or are qualified under rule 203A-2.

6. Consequences of Not Conducting Collection

Rule 206(4)-3 requires a solicitor to provide the required disclosure at the time of the solicitation or referral; without this information at the time of the solicitation or referral, the client would be unaware of the solicitor's financial interest in the recommendation.

7. Inconsistencies with Guidelines in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)

Not applicable.

8. Consultation Outside the Agency

The Commission and staff of the Division of Investment Management participate in an ongoing dialogue with representatives of the investment adviser profession through public conferences, meetings and informal exchanges. These various forums provide the Commission and staff with a means of ascertaining and acting upon paperwork burdens confronting the industry. In addition, the Commission requested public comment on the information collection requirements in rule 206(4)-3 before submitting this request for extension and approval to the OMB. The Commission received no comments in response to this request.

9. Payment or Gift

Not applicable.

10. Confidentiality

The information collected pursuant to rule 206(4)-3 requires solicitors to provide information to advisory clients and prospective clients. Accordingly, these disclosures would not be kept confidential.

11. Sensitive Questions

Not applicable.

12. Burden of Information Collection

We estimate that about 27.7% of the approximately 13,804 investment advisers registered with the Commission, or 3,829 advisers ($13,804 \times 27.7\%$) use rule 206(4)-3.⁵ We estimate that the current estimate of 7.04 burden hours each year per respondent to comply with the rule will continue, for a total of 26,956 hours ($7.04 \times 3,829$). It is the experience of the Commission staff that the contract and solicitor disclosure documents used in compliance with the rule are generally quite brief and that on average not more than 11 referrals per adviser using the rule are made annually. We therefore estimate that compliance with the rule will result in 42,119 total annual responses ($3,829 \times 11$). Compliance managers and clerical staff are likely to prepare and deliver these documents, and we estimate the hourly wage rate for compliance managers to be \$316,⁶ including benefits, and the hourly rate for general clerical staff to be \$64,⁷ including benefits. Accordingly, we estimate the annual cost to each respondent of this hour burden to be \$1,337 (3.52 hours of professional time at \$316 per hour (approx. \$1,112), and 3.52 hours of ⁵ Estimate based on IARD data from Form ADV Items 8.H.1 and 8.H.2 as of December 31, 2020 with filings received through September 30, 2021. Firms that responded “Yes” to either Item 8.H.1 or 8.H.2 are included in the 3,829 number.

⁶ Data from the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association’s Management & Professional Earnings in the Securities Industry (2013), modified to account for an 1,800-hour work-year and multiplied by 5.35 to account for bonuses, firm size, employee benefits and overhead, suggest that the cost for a Compliance Manager is approximately $316 per hour.

⁷ Data from the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association’s Office Salaries Data (2013) Report (adjusted for inflation), modified to account for an 1,800-hour work-year and multiplied by 2.93 to account for bonuses, firm size, employee benefits and overhead, suggest that the cost for a General Clerk is approximately $64 per hour.

clerical time at $64 per hour (approx. $225) for a total annual cost of the hour burden of approximately $5,119,373, ($1,337 x 3,829). This is a decrease of $419,030 over the currently approved total annual cost of the hour burden of $5,538,403, due primarily to a decrease in the number of registered investment advisers (3,829 versus 4,395 using rule 206(4)-3).

14. Cost to the Federal Government

Rule 206(4)-3 does not impose any costs on the Federal government because there are no separate filing requirements with the Commission.

15. Changes in Burden

The number of responses per investment adviser and the number of hours per response have not changed since the last estimate. The number of respondents decreased from 4,395 investment advisers to 3,829 investment advisers. As a result, the total burden hours for all respondents has decreased from 30,941 hours to 26,956. This decrease is due to our estimate, based on IARD data, of a decrease in the number of registered investment advisers (3,829 versus 4,395) using rule 206(4)-3. The average burden per Commission registered adviser of 7.04 hours would not change.⁸
