Sexual Strategies Scale

In the past, which if any of the following strategies have you used to convince someone to have sex (oral, anal, or vaginal intercourse) after they initially said "no"?

Continuing to touch and kiss them in the hopes that they will give in to sex.	<input type="text"/>
Telling them lies (e.g., saying "I love you" when you don't).	<input type="text"/>
Using your older age to convince them.	<input type="text"/>
Getting them drunk/high in order to convince them to have sex.	<input type="text"/>
Threatening to tell others a secret or lie about them if they don't have sex (i.e., blackmail).	<input type="text"/>
Asking them repeatedly to have sex.	<input type="text"/>
Blocking them if they try to leave the room.	<input type="text"/>
Threatening to harm them physically if they don't have sex.	<input type="text"/>
Taking advantage of the fact that they are drunk/high.	<input type="text"/>
Threatening to harm yourself if they don't have sex.	<input type="text"/>
Using a weapon to frighten them into having sex.	<input type="text"/>
Taking off their clothes in the hopes that they will give in to sex.	<input type="text"/>
Taking off your clothes in the hopes that they will give in to sex.	<input type="text"/>
Using physical restraint.	<input type="text"/>
Threatening to break up with them if they don't have sex.	<input type="text"/>
Questioning their sexuality (e.g., calling them a lesbian/gay).	<input type="text"/>
Using your authority to convince them (e.g., if you were their boss, their supervisor, etc).	<input type="text"/>
Harming them physically. Tying them up.	<input type="text"/>
Questioning their commitment to the relationship (e.g., saying "if you loved me, you would").	<input type="text"/>
Accusing them of "leading you on" or being "a tease."	<input type="text"/>
Slipping them drugs (e.g., GHB or "Roofties") so that you can take advantage of them.	<input type="text"/>
Made someone penetrate you with their penis, finger, or another object.	<input type="text"/>
I have never used ANY of the above strategies.	<input type="text"/>

IRMAS

Please respond to the following statements. There are no right or wrong answers, we just ask for your most honest response.

I think:

If a girl is raped while she is drunk, she is at least somewhat responsible for letting things get out of control.

When girls go to parties wearing slutty clothes, they are asking for trouble.

If a girl goes to a room alone with a guy at a party, it is her own fault if she is raped.

If a girl acts like a slut, eventually she is going to get into trouble.

When girls are raped it is often because the way they said “no” was unclear.

If a girl initiates kissing or hooking up, she should not be surprised if a guy assumes she wants to have sex.

When guys rape, it is usually because of their strong desire for sex.

Guys don't usually intend to force sex on a girl, but sometimes they get too sexually carried away.

Rape happens when a guy's sex drive gets out of control.

If a guy is drunk, he might rape someone unintentionally.

It shouldn't be considered rape if a guy is drunk and didn't realize what he was doing.

If both people are drunk, it can't be rape.

If a girl doesn't physically resist sex—even if protesting verbally—it can't be considered rape.

If a girl doesn't physically fight back, you can't really say it was rape.

A rape probably didn't happen if the girl has no bruises or marks.

If the accused “rapist” doesn't have a weapon, you really can't call it rape.

If a girl doesn't say “no” she can't claim rape.

A lot of times, girls who say they were raped agreed to have sex and then regret it.

Rape accusations are often used as a way of getting back at guys.

A lot of times, girls who say they were raped often led the guy on and then had regrets.

A lot of times, girls who claim they were raped just have emotional problems.

Girls who are caught cheating on their boyfriends sometimes claim that it was a rape.

Sexual Social Norms Inventory

Please rate how you would respond to the following statements:

If I witnessed someone pressuring another person to leave with them, I would ask if everything was okay.

If I saw someone mistreating a person I know, I would do something to help them.

If I saw someone put something in another person's drink, I would tell them.

If I saw someone emotionally abusing a person I know, I would try to help them.

If I witnessed someone hitting another person, I would call the police.

If I witnessed sexual harassment, I would stay out of it.

If I witnessed a rape, I would call the police.

I have a problem with people joking about having sex.

I feel uncomfortable if a friend brags about having sex.

It bothers me if I'm with a group of friends and someone puts women down by making jokes or comments about them.

I don't like it when people use words like "slut" or "bitch" to insult women.

It's embarrassing when people I am with make sexual comments about others they don't know.

It's fun to watch a porno video with a group of friends.

If I thought a friend was lying to someone to obtain sex I would tell them.

Even if someone has their clothes off, he/she/they still has/have the right to say no to sex.

Only people who are promiscuous get raped.

Being drunk is no excuse for forcing someone to have sex.

Even if someone is dressed seductively, he/she/they do(es) not deserve to be raped.

If a woman lets a man kiss her, it means she wants to have sex with him.

If someone has been drinking, it is his/her/their fault if he/she/they get(s) raped.

If a friend planned to give someone drugs in order to have sex with another person, I would try to stop him/her/them.

I would have sex with someone without his/her/their permission if no one would know.

I will stop sexual activity when asked to, even if I am already sexually aroused.

I use date rape drugs to obtain sex.

If a person goes home with a service member, it means they want to have sex.

Sometimes people say no to sex so they won't seem easy.

When someone is very sexually aroused, they may not even realize that the other person is resisting their advances.

I would rather have a good relationship with one person than sex with many different people.

I encourage my date to drink so he/she/they will let me have sex with him/her/them.

At parties, I look for people who are drunk and might be more willing to have sex with me.

If my date says no to sex, I try to change his/her/their mind

Alcohol and Sexual Behaviors

Please indicate how likely you are to engage in each of the following: (Sexual activity includes any kind of sexual behavior (kissing, touching, or sexual intercourse)).

How likely would you be to:

WHILE DRINKING: ask for verbal consent when I am sexual with someone, even if we are in a long-term relationship. (Verbal consent means to ask that a sexual activity is OK, before starting it).

WHILE SOBER: ask for verbal consent when I am sexual with someone, even if we are in a long-term relationship. (Verbal consent means to ask that a sexual activity is OK, before starting it).

WHILE DRINKING: stop sexual activity when asked to, even if I am already sexually aroused.

WHILE SOBER: stop sexual activity when asked to, even if I am already sexually aroused.

WHILE DRINKING: stop a sexual activity with someone if they say to stop, even if they were OK with it when it started.

WHILE SOBER: stop a sexual activity with someone if they say to stop, even if they were OK with it when it started.

WHILE DRINKING: decide not to have sexual activity with someone who is drunk.

WHILE SOBER: decide not to have sexual activity with someone who is drunk.

Stages of Change

These questions are about your views about sexual violence. Sexual violence includes any type of behaviors that are unwanted by the person they are done to; unwanted sexual behaviors may include unwanted touching, verbal pressure to have sex, and attempts to or actual unwanted oral, anal sex (that involves penetration) that can happen through the use of force, threat of force, or when the person is asleep or passed out and can't agree to what is happening.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Agree
1. I don't think sexual assault is a big problem among Sailors.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
2. I don't think there is much I can do about sexual assault among Sailors.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
3. There isn't much need for me to think about sexual assault among Sailors, that's the job of the SAPRO/Command.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
4. Sometimes I think I should learn more about sexual assault but I haven't done so yet.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
5. I think I can do something about sexual assault and am planning to find out what I can do about the problem.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
6. I am planning to learn more about the problem of sexual assault among Sailors.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Intentions to Intervene with Peers

How likely are YOU to do something to try and stop what's happening if a peer or friend of yours is:

- |   |                      |
|---|----------------------|
| Making rude or disrespectful comments about someone else's body, clothing, or make-up.                                      | <input type="text"/> |
| Fighting with someone where they are starting to cuss at or threaten the other person.                                      | <input type="text"/> |
| Doing unwelcome or uninvited things toward another person such as howling, whistling or making sexual gestures.             | <input type="text"/> |
| Bragging about what them and their partner may do sexually.   | <input type="text"/> |
| Shoving, grabbing, or otherwise physically hurting another person.  | <input type="text"/> |
| Showing other people sexual messages or naked/sexual pictures on a cell phone or the internet.                              | <input type="text"/> |
| Telling sexual jokes that disrespect someone.   | <input type="text"/> |
| Taking sexual advantage of a person (like touching, kissing, having sex with) who is drunk, high from drugs, or passed out. | <input type="text"/> |
| Telling someone who they can talk to or hang out with.  | <input type="text"/> |

Bystander Efficacy Scale

Please read the following list of behaviors and using the scale below. Please indicate how CONFIDENT you are in performing each of the following:

	Please indicate how confident you are using a scale of 0 (not confident at all) to 100 (very confident).
1. Express discomfort/concern if someone makes a joke about someone's body.	<input type="text"/>
2. Express my discomfort if someone says that rape victims are to blame for being raped.	<input type="text"/>
3. Call for help (i.e., call 911) if I hear someone where I live yelling 'help'.	<input type="text"/>
4. Talk to a friend who I suspect is in an abusive relationship.	<input type="text"/>
5. Get help and resources for a friend who tells me they have been raped.	<input type="text"/>
6. Ask a stranger who looks very upset at a party if they are okay or need help.	<input type="text"/>
7. Ask a friend if they need to be walked home from a party.	<input type="text"/>
8. Ask a stranger if they need to be walked home from a party.	<input type="text"/>
9. Speak up if someone is providing misinformation about sexual assault.	<input type="text"/>
10. Criticize a friend who tells me that they had sex with someone who was passed out or who didn't give consent.	<input type="text"/>

Please indicate how confident you are using a scale of 0 (not confident at all) to 100 (very confident).

11. Do something to help a very drunk person who is being brought upstairs to a bedroom by a group of people at a party.

12. Do something if I see a woman surrounded by a group of men at a party who looks very uncomfortable.

13. Get help if I hear that another Sailor is in an abusive relationship.

14. Tell someone in Command or a SARC (sexual assault response coordinator) about information I have that might help in a sexual assault case even if pressured by my peers to stay silent.

SES-vict

The following questions concern sexual experiences that you may have had that were unwanted. We know that these are personal questions, so we do not ask your name or other identifying information. Your information is completely confidential. We hope that this helps you to feel comfortable answering each question honestly. Place a check mark in each box showing the number of times each experience has happened to you. The time since starting military service is from when you first joined the military, up until today. Since age 14 refers to your life starting on your 14th birthday and stopping when you first joined the military.

How old were you when you first started military service?

1. Someone fondled, kissed, or rubbed up against the private areas of my body (lips, breast/chest, crotch, butt) or removed some of my clothes without my consent (but did not attempt sexual penetration) by:

rand sexual harassment items

In this section, you will be asked about several things that someone from work might have done to you that were upsetting or offensive, and that happened in the PAST YEAR.

When the question says “someone from work,” please include any person you have contact with as part of your military duties. “Someone from work” could be a supervisor, someone above or below you in rank, or a civilian employee/contractor. They could be in your unit or in other units.

These things may have occurred on-duty or off-duty, on-base or off-base. Please include them as long as the person who did them to you was someone from your military work. This could be involving someone of any gender, who is Military Personnel (Active Duty or National Guard/Reserve) who are On- or Off- duty, and On- or Off-installation or ship; or involving DoD/Service Civilian Employees and/or Contractors in your workplace or on your installation/ship.

This could be involving someone of any gender, who is Military Personnel (Active Duty or National Guard/Reserve) who are on-duty or off-duty, on- or off-installation or ship.

Remember, all the information you share will be kept confidential.
