Title of Partnership: Title must be bold.

Partnership Institutions: Name of the ISUPS and the Cancer Center (spelled out).

Research Team: Include the MPI team, Program Managers, and Core Leaders.

Overview of Partnership: State the overall goals, objectives, and target population(s) of the partnership. Describe the mutual benefits that the partnering institutions derive from the partnership, including ways both institutions support each other in developing stronger cancer programs.

Accomplishments and/or Discoveries: Highlight scientific research accomplishments (ex. seminal discoveries with the citation, high-ranking publications, development and implementation of innovative programs, major grants received), unique approaches, and/or resources that significantly benefit communities of interest and/or can be disseminated to other partnerships.

Impact/Outcomes of the Partnership: Describe innovative measures, scientific models, activities, and outcomes in cancer research and outreach. Highlight the cancer training and education by providing one or two examples of a student, postdoc, or ESI successfully advancing through the program.

Sustainability: Describe how the partnership leverages funding through other sources (e.g., county, state, or other federal funding; foundation funding) and how partnership achievements are establishing a foundation for future PACHE research, research education/training, and community opportunities at both institutions. Succinctly describe any significant changes at the institution directed to maintain the partnership if the U54 funding ceases and any plans to retain investigators, training and education programs, and work with communities.

Shared Resources: Highlight Shared Resources, which could be shared among other PACHE partnerships and how they are utilized. Identify any unique characteristic(s) about a resource.

Areas of Collaboration: Describe current collaboration(s) you have with other PACHE partnership(s) and potential areas for collaboration with partnerships or other NCI programs (SPORES, NCORP, EDNR, etc.).
