Subject: Register Now: Collaborating to Develop New Practice Randomization Trials for NCORP CCDR

Dear [NAME],

The National Cancer Institute (NCI) Division of Cancer Control and Population Sciences (DCCPS) will host a series of webinars to increase familiarity with purpose of and key methodological considerations in cluster randomized trials; share experiences about conducting cluster randomized trials in NCORP CCDR (10 protocols to date); and discuss strategies for the design and conduct of future cluster randomized trials that balance scientific rigor and feasibility.

Registration for the following webinars is now open! Registration will be open through [December 7, 12 noon].

- o Demystifying the Practice Randomized Trials & Their Use in NCORP CCDR - October 24, 2021 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.
- o Realities of Practice Randomized Trials in NCORP CCDR - November 18, 2021 | 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.
- o Making the Numbers Work: Statistical Considerations - December 7, 2021 | 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.
