Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 204(b), 1631(b)(1)(B), and 1631(e)(1)(B) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on benefit eligibility or from determining if the individual has the ability to repay an overpayment.

We will use the information you provide to verify eligibility for benefits or to assist us in waiving a Social Security overpayment. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under the routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter into a contractual or similar agreement with a third party to assist in accomplishing an agency function relating to this system of records; and
- To student volunteers, individuals working under a personal services contract, and other workers who technically do not have the status of Federal employees, when they are performing work for the Social Security Administration (SSA), as authorized by law, and they need access to personally identifiable information in SSA records in order to perform their assigned Agency functions.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORNs) 60-0090, entitled Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826; 60-0094, entitled Recovery of Overpayments, Accounting and Reporting/Debt Management System (ROAR/DMS), as published in the FR on August 23, 2005, at 70 FR 49354; 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830; and 60-0320 entitled Electronic Disability (eDIB) Claim File, as published in the FR on June 4, 2020, at 85 FR 34477.
