§ 122.49a

- (3) Evidence. The aircraft commander or agent shall supply proof of the claim that:
- (i) Shortage merchandise was not imported, or was properly disposed of; or
- (ii) That corrective action was taken. This proof shall be kept in the carrier file for one year from the date of aircraft entry.
- (b) Overages—(1) Reporting. Overages (merchandise found but not listed on the manifest or air waybill) shall be reported to the port director by the aircraft commander or agent. The report shall be made:
 - (i) On a Customs Form 5931; or
- (ii) On a separate copy of the cargo manifest which is marked "Post Entry" and lists the overage merchandise and the reason for the overage.
- (2) Time to file. Overages shall be reported within 30 days of aircraft entry.
- (3) Evidence. Satisfactory proof of the reasons for the overage shall be kept on file by the carrier for one year from the date of the report.
- (c) Statement on cargo manifest. If the air cargo manifest is used to report shortages or overages, the Shortages Declaration or Post Entry must include the signed statement of the aircraft commander or agent as follows:

I declare to the best of my knowledge and belief that the discrepancy described herein occurred for the reason stated. I also certify that evidence to support the explanation of the discrepancy will be retained in the carrier's files for a period of at least one year and will be made available to Customs on demand.

(Aircraft Commander or Agent)

- (d) Notice by port director. The port director shall immediately notify the aircraft commander or agent of any shortages or overages that were not reported by the aircraft commander or agent. Notice shall be given by sending a copy of Customs Form 5931 to the aircraft commander or agent, or in any other appropriate way. The aircraft commander or agent shall make a satisfactory reply within 30 days of entry of the aircraft or receipt of the notice, whichever is later.
- (e) Correction not required. A correction in the manifest or air waybill is not required if:

- (1) The port director is satisfied that the difference between the quantity of bulk merchandise listed on the manifest or air waybill, and the quantity unladen, is the usual difference caused by absorption or loss of moisture, temperature, faulty weighing at the airport, or other such reason; and
- (2) The marks or numbers on merchandise packages are different from the marks or numbers listed on the cargo manifest for those packages if the quantity and description of the merchandise is given correctly.
- (f) Statutes applicable. If an aircraft arrives in the U.S. from a foreign area with merchandise and unaccompanied baggage for which a manifest or air waybill must be filed, section 584 (concerning manifest violations), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1584, applies.

§ 122.49a Electronic manifest requirement for passengers onboard commercial aircraft arriving in the United States.

(a) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of this section: Appropriate official. "Appropriate official" means the master or commanding officer, or authorized agent, owner, or consignee, of a commercial aircraft; this term and the term "carrier" are sometimes used interchangeably.

Carrier. See "Appropriate official."

Commercial aircraft. "Commercial aircraft" has the meaning provided in §122.1(d) and includes aircraft engaged in passenger flight operations, all-cargo flight operations, and dual flight operations involving the transport of both cargo and passengers.

Crew Member. "Crew member" means a person serving on board an aircraft in good faith in any capacity required for normal operation and service of the flight. In addition, the definition of "crew member" applicable to this section should not be applied in the context of other customs laws, to the extent this definition differs from the meaning of "crew member" contemplated in such other customs laws.

Departure. "Departure" means the point at which the wheels are up on the aircraft and the aircraft is en route directly to its destination.

Emergency. "Emergency" means, with respect to an aircraft arriving at a U.S. port due to an emergency, an urgent situation due to a mechanical, medical, or security problem affecting the flight, or to an urgent situation affecting the non-U.S. port of destination that necessitates a detour to a U.S. port.

Passenger. "Passenger" means any person, including a Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Aviation Security Inspector with valid credentials and authorization, being transported on a commercial aircraft who is not a crew member.

United States. "United States" means the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

- (b) Electronic arrival manifest—(1) General requirement. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, an appropriate official of each commercial aircraft arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States must transmit to Customs and Border Protection (CBP) an electronic passenger arrival manifest covering any passengers on board the aircraft. Each manifest must be transmitted to CPB at the place and time specified in paragraph (b)(2) of this section by means of an electronic data interchange system approved by CBP and must set forth the information specified in paragraph (b)(3) of this section. A passenger manifest must be transmitted separately from a crew member manifest required under §122.49b if transmission is in US EDIFACT format.
- (2) Place and time for submission. The appropriate official specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section must transmit the electronic passenger arrival manifest required under paragraph (b)(1) of this section to the CBP Data Center, CBP Headquarters:
- (i) No later than 15 minutes after departure of the aircraft;
- (ii) For flights not originally destined to the United States but diverted to a U.S. port due to an emergency, no later than 30 minutes prior to arrival; in cases of non-compliance, CBP will take into consideration that the carrier was not equipped to make the transmission and the circumstances of the emergency situation; and

- (iii) For an aircraft operating as an air ambulance in service of a medical emergency, no later than 30 minutes prior to arrival.
- (3) Information required. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the electronic passenger arrival manifest required under paragraph (b)(1) of this section must contain the following information for all passengers, except that the information specified in paragraphs (b)(iv), (v), (x), (xii), (xiii), and (xiv) of this section must be included on the manifest only on or after October 4, 2005:
- (i) Full name (last, first, and, if available, middle);
 - (ii) Date of birth;
 - (iii) Gender (F = female; M = male);
 - (iv) Citizenship;
 - (v) Country of residence;
- (vi) Status on board the aircraft;
- (vii) Travel document type (e.g., P = passport; A = alien registration card);
- (viii) Passport number, if a passport is required;
- (ix) Passport country of issuance, if a passport is required;
- (x) Passport expiration date, if a passport is required;
- (xi) Alien registration number, where applicable;
- (xii) Address while in the United States (number and street, city, state, and zip code), except that this information is not required for U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents, or persons who are in transit to a location outside the United States:
- (xiii) Passenger Name Record locator, if available:
- (xiv) International Air Transport Association (IATA) code of foreign port/place where transportation to the United States began (foreign port code);
- (xv) IATA code of port/place of first arrival (arrival port code);
- (xvi) IATA code of final foreign port/ place of destination for in-transit passengers (foreign port code);
 - (xvii) Airline carrier code;
 - (xviii) Flight number: and
 - (xix) Date of aircraft arrival.
- (c) Exception. The electronic passenger arrival manifest specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section is not required for active duty U.S. military personnel being transported as passengers on arriving Department of Defense commercial chartered aircraft.

(d) Carrier responsibility for comparing information collected with travel document. The carrier collecting the information described in paragraph (b)(3) of this section is responsible for comparing the travel document presented by the passenger with the travel document information it is transmitting to CBP in accordance with this section in order to ensure that the information is correct, the document appears to be valid for travel to the United States, and the passenger is the person to whom the travel document was issued.

(e) Sharing of manifest information. Information contained in the passenger manifests required by this section that is received by CBP electronically may, upon request, be shared with other Federal agencies for the purpose of protecting national security. CBP may also share such information as otherwise authorized by law.

§ 122.49b Electronic manifest requirement for crew members and noncrew members onboard commercial aircraft arriving in, continuing within, and overflying the United States.

(a) Definitions. The definitions set forth below apply for purposes of this section. The definitions set forth in §122.49a(a), other than those for the terms set forth below, also apply for purposes of this section:

All-cargo flight. "All-cargo flight" means a flight in operation for the purpose of transporting cargo which has onboard only "crew members" and "non-crew members" as defined in this paragraph.

Carrier. In addition to the meaning set forth in §122.49a(a), "carrier" includes each entity that is an "aircraft operator" or "foreign air carrier" with a security program under 49 CFR part 1544, 1546, or 1550 of the Transportation Security Administration regulations.

Crew member. "Crew member" means a pilot, copilot, flight engineer, airline management personnel authorized to travel in the cockpit, cabin crew, and relief crew (also known 'deadheading crew''). However, for all other purposes of immigration law and documentary evidence required under the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101, et seq.), "crew member" (or "crewman") means a person serving onboard an aircraft in good faith in any capacity required for the normal operation and service of the flight (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(10) and (a)(15)(D), as applicable). In addition, the definition of "crew member" applicable to this section should not be applied in the context of other customs laws, to the extent this definition differs from the meaning of "crew member" templated in such other customs laws.

Flight continuing within the United States. "Flight continuing within the United States" refers to the domestic leg of a flight operated by a foreign air carrier that originates at a foreign port or place, arrives at a U.S. port, and then continues to a second U.S. port.

Flight overflying the United States. "Flight overflying the United States" refers to a flight departing from a foreign port or place that enters the territorial airspace of the U.S. en route to another foreign port or place.

Non-crew member. "Non-crew member" means air carrier employees and their family members and persons traveling onboard a commercial aircraft for the safety of the flight (such as an animal handler when animals are onboard). The definition of "non-crew member" is limited to all-cargo flights. (On a passenger or dual flight (passengers and cargo), air carrier employees, their family members, and persons onboard for the safety of the flight are considered passengers.)

Territorial airspace of the United States. "Territorial airspace of the United States" means the airspace over the United States, its territories, and possessions, and the airspace over the territorial waters between the United States coast and 12 nautical miles from the coast.

(b) Electronic arrival manifest—(1) General requirement. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, an appropriate official of each commercial aircraft operating a flight arriving in or overflying the United States, from a foreign port or place, or continuing
