If you are a disaster survivor, you may qualify for federal assistance.

The registration process will take 18-20 minutes. The process is authorized by the Office of Management and Budget under Control number 1660-0002 with an expiration of February 28, 2021.

- If you are applying for both home and business disaster assistance, complete one registration to cover both.
- If you are applying for multiple disasters, you will need to complete a registration for each disaster.

You'll need the following to complete your registration:

- Social Security Number (SSN), or, the SSN of a minor child in the household who is a U.S. Citizen, Non-Citizen National or Qualified Alien.
- Annual Household Income
- Contact Information (phone number, mailing address, email address*, and damaged home address)
- Insurance Information (coverage, insurance company name, etc.)
- Bank Account Information (if you are eligible to receive financial assistance, the money can be deposited in your account)

*Note: You must provide an email address if you want to review your registration status online. If you do not provide an email address, you will be required to contact FEMA for any updates to your registration.

If you need further information or assistance:

Call the FEMA Helpline at 1-800-621-FEMA (1-800-621-3362). This number is also for users of 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS). TTY users can call 1-800-462-7585. Helpline services are available seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. ET.

If you are having technical issues, call FEMA's Internet Help Desk at 1-800-745-0243. They are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

To learn more, review the Individuals and Households Program Unified Guidance. This provides policy and eligibility information for all assistance under the Individuals and Households Program (IHP). Visit the Individual Disaster Assistance page for more details. You may also view Disasters by calendar year or find other agency support by disaster.

On the left side, there is a 'Correspondence Preferences' section with a sub-section for 'Explanation' containing links for 'Correspondence' and 'SMS Notifications'. The main content area is titled 'Letters and Documents' and features an 'Application Progress' indicator with 10 dots, the 9th of which is filled. Below the title, the text states: 'You are almost done with your registration - just a few more questions.' and 'OMB No. 1660-0002, Exp. 02-28-2018'. The 'Letters and Documents' section explains that users can choose how they want to receive alerts and information from FEMA, with two options: 'U.S. Mail' and 'email'. A note specifies that email messages are alerts only and that users will be required to check their account online for specific information. A 'Review Page' section follows, stating that the last page of registration allows users to review their information and make minimum changes online. It also notes that the Review Page includes a list of items that users agree to when submitting their registration online and advises them to read the page carefully before clicking the Submit button. At the bottom of the page, there are three buttons: 'Back', 'Save or Exit', and 'Next'. The browser's status bar at the bottom right shows '100%' zoom.

You are about to submit your FEMA registration. Please carefully review the information below. Click Edit to make changes or click Submit to submit your registration to FEMA. You will only be able to make limited changes after you submit your registration.

By clicking Submit below I certify that:

- * Only one application has been submitted for my household.
- * All information I have provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- * I will return any disaster aid money I received from FEMA or the State if I receive insurance or other money for the same loss, or if I do not use FEMA disaster aid money for the purpose for which it was intended.

I understand that, if I intentionally make false statements or conceal any information in an attempt to obtain disaster aid, it is a violation of federal and State laws, which carry severe criminal and civil penalties, including a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 287, 1001, and 3571).

I understand that the information provided regarding my application for FEMA disaster assistance may be subject to sharing within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) including, but not limited to, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

I authorize FEMA to verify all information given by me about my property/place of residence, income, employment and dependents in order to determine my eligibility for disaster assistance; and

I authorize all custodians of records of my insurance, employer, any public or private entity, bank financial or credit data service to release information to FEMA and/or the State upon request.
