RE: Non-substantive Revisions to FDIC Forms 2710-05 and 2710-06 “Financial Institution Diversity Self-Assessment”

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is submitting a request for a non-substantive revision to two recently approved forms included within the information collection entitled “OMWI Policies and Practices” (OMB Control No. 3064-0200; Expiration Date: January 31, 2025) to remove certain fields in Section II of each form that do not require respondent input as the functionality built into the form calculates the pertinent information based on other inputs in the form. The substance of the information collection is not affected by these revisions which were specifically discussed in the Federal Register notices and the Supporting Statement recently submitted in connection with the adoption of these forms. The revisions to the forms are not substantive.

If you have questions, please let me know. Thank you for your consideration.
